Health Snippet – Rest: Sabbath rest

For many people, their Sabbath consists of going to church and little more. While Jesus did emphasize that the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath (Mark 2:27), there is tremendous value to keeping the Sabbath in the manner stated in the Bible. By keeping the Sabbath as Christ did, we receive the following benefits.

1. We are reminded our worth isn't based on what we produce.
2. We have time to evaluate our priorities.
3. We have time to connect with friends and family.
4. We have time to rest.
5. It is a reminder of what God has done for us.
6. We are told that we will be blessed when we keep the Sabbath.

SABBATH AND PHYSICAL REST: studies show people who keep the Sabbath experience dramatic decreases in the rates of coronary artery disease. National Geographic - regular Sabbath-keepers outlive their American counterparts by up to 10 years. The practice of keeping every Saturday as a Sabbath rest—they respect God's commandment as written and reap the benefits.

SABBATH AND MENTAL REST: frees our minds from the cares of life, provides relief from the constant stresses, anxieties that drain our mental powers & cause our brains to function less efficiently.

I set before you this day
a blessing and a curse.
A blessing, if ye obey
the commandments of the Lord.

Deuteronomy 11:26-28

A curse, if ye will not obey
the commandments
but turn aside to go after other gods which ye have not known.

KEYS OF THIS BLOOD - p. 14-16

Author: Malachi Martin

"Willing or not, ready or not, we are all involved in an all-out, no-holds-barred, three-way global competition. Most of us are not competitors, however. We are the stakes. For the competition is about who will establish the first one-world system of government that has ever existed in the society of nations. It is about who will hold and wield the dual power of authority and control over each of us as individuals and over all of us together as a community; over the entire six billion people expected by demographers to inhabit the earth by early in the third millennium. The competition is all-out because, now that it has started, there is no way it can be reversed or called off. No holds are barred because, once the competition has been decided, the world and all that's in it—our way of life as individuals and as citizens of the nations; our families and our jobs; our trade and commerce and money; our educational systems and our religions and our cultures; even the badges of our national identity, which most of us have always taken for granted— all will have been powerfully and radically altered forever. No one can be exempted from its effects. No sector of our lives will remain untouched."

God does not Exercise Force

"The exercise of force is contrary to the principles of God's government; He desires only the service of love; and love cannot be commanded; it cannot be won by force or authority. Only by love is love awakened. To know God is to love Him; His character must be manifested in contrast to the character of Satan. This work only one Being in all the universe could do."

God does not Exercise Force (cont'd)

"The great error of the Romish Church is found in the fact that the Bible is interpreted in the light of the opinions of the "fathers." Their opinions are regarded as infallible, and the dignitaries of the church assume that it is their prerogative to make others believe as they do, and to use force to compel the conscience. Those who do not agree with them are pronounced heretics. But the word of God is not thus to be interpreted. It is to stand on its own eternal merits, to be read as the word of God, to be obeyed as the voice of God, which declares His will to the people. The will and voice of finite man are not to be interpreted as the voice of God."

Laudato si – Sunday as Sabbath day

it is the living centre of the universe, the overflowing core of love and of inexhaustible life. Joined to the incarnate Son, present in the Eucharist, the whole cosmos gives thanks to God. Indeed the Eucharist is itself an act of cosmic love: "Yes, cosmic! Because even when it is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, the Eucharist is always in some way celebrated on the altar of the world".[166] The Eucharist joins heaven and earth; it embraces and penetrates all creation. The world which came forth from God's hands returns to him in blessed and undivided adoration: in the bread of the Eucharist, "creation is projected towards divinization, towards the holy wedding feast, towards unification with the Creator himself".[167] Thus, the Eucharist is also a source of light and motivation for our concerns for the environment, directing us to be stewards of all creation.

237. On Sunday, our participation in the Eucharist has special importance. Sunday, like the Jewish Sabbath, is meant to be a day which heals our relationships with God, with ourselves, with others and with the world. Sunday is the day of the Resurrection, the "first day" of the new creation, whose first fruits are the Lord's risen humanity, the pledge of the final transfiguration of all created reality. It also proclaims "man's eternal rest in God".[168] In this way, Christian spirituality incorporates the value of relaxation and festivity. We tend to demean contemplative rest as something unproductive and unnecessary, but this is to do away with the very thing which is most important about work: its meaning. We are called to include in our work a dimension of receptivity and gratuity, which is quite different from mere inactivity. Rather, it is another way of working, which forms part of our very essence. It protects human action from becoming empty activism; it also prevents that unfettered greed and sense of isolation which make us seek personal gain to the detriment of all else. The law of weekly rest forbade work on the seventh day, "so that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your maidservant, and the stranger, may be refreshed" (Ex 23:12). Rest opens our eyes to the larger picture and gives us renewed sensitivity to the rights of others. And so the day of rest, centred on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor.

VII. THE TRINITY AND THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CREATURES

238. The Father is the ultimate source of everything, the loving and self-communicating foundation of all that exists. The Son, his reflection, through whom all things were created, united himself to this earth when he was formed in the womb of Mary. The Spirit, infinite bond of love, is intimately present at the very heart of the universe, inspiring and bringing new pathways. The world was created by the three Persons acting as a single divine principle, but each one of them performed this common work in accordance with his own personal property. Consequently, "when we contemplate with wonder the universe in all its grandeur and beauty, we must praise the whole Trinity".[169]

Sabbath is the Lord's day - Matthew 12:8

"Question: What is Sunday, or the Lord's Day in general?

Answer: It is a day dedicated by the Apostles TO THE HONOUR OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY, and in memory that Christ our Lord arose from the dead upon Sunday, sent down the holy Ghost on a Sunday, &c. and therefore is called the Lord's Day. It is also called Sunday from the old Roman denomination of Dies Solis, the day of the sun, to which it was sacred."

"Messages of every order and kind have been urged upon Seventh-day Adventists, to take the place of the truth which, point by point, has been sought out by prayerful study, and testified to by the miracle-working power of the Lord. But the waymarks which have made us what we are, are to be preserved, and they will be preserved, as God has signified through His word and the testimony of His Spirit. He calls upon us to hold firmly, with the grip of faith, to the fundamental principles that are based upon unquestionable authority."

Satan is working behind the scenes

"Satan is creeping in with his sophistry to undermine the principles of our faith."

Ms66-1905.29

"Satan hopes to involve the remnant people of God in the general ruin that is coming upon the earth. As the coming of Christ draws nigh, he will be more determined and decisive in his efforts to overthrow them. Men and women will arise professing to have some new light or some new revelation, whose tendency is to unsettle faith in the old landmarks. Their doctrines will not bear the test of God's word, yet souls will be deceived."

Testimonies Vol. 5 p296

Satan is working behind the scenes (cont'd)

“The enemy has worked upon the minds of some and has led them to do violence to our past experience by mingling with the truth erroneous and false theories. He has led ministers and teachers to weave into their doctrines some pleasing figures of his own invention. “If your faith in the Word of God is strengthened; if you will fully accept the truths that have called us out of the world and made us a people denominated by the Lord as His peculiar treasure; if you will unite with your brethren in standing by the old landmarks, then there will be unity. But you remain in unbelief, unsettled as to the true foundation of faith; there can be no hope of any more unity in the future than there has been in the past.”

11MR 319.1

Foundations need to be rock solid

“This is Satan’s device to unsettle the foundation of our faith, to shake our confidence in the Lord’s guidance and in the experience that He has given us... Many things of like character will in the future arise. I entreat our medical missionary workers to be afraid to trust the suppositions and devising of any human being who entertains the thought that the path over which the people of God have been led for the last fifty years is a wrong path. Beware of those who, not having had any decided experience in the leading of the Lord’s Spirit, would suppose that this leading is all a fallacy; that we have not the truth; that we are not the people of the Lord, gathered by Him from all countries and nations. Beware of those who would tear down the foundation, upon which we have been building for the last fifty years, to establish a new doctrine. I know that these new theories are from the enemy...

Nov. 12, 1903, Ms137-1903

Hold on to the pillars of faith in the Bible

“We are to hold to the sure pillars of our faith. The principles of truth that God has revealed to us are our only true foundation. They have made us what we are. The lapse of time had not lessened their value.”

Special Testimonies, Series B, No. 2, p. 51 (1904). CW 52.2

“Not a stone is to be moved in the foundation of this truth—not a pillar moved.... The time has come when even in the church and in our institutions, some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils.”

Letter 237, 1904, pp. 5, 6. (To Brother Butler, July 14, 1904.) 7MR 188.1

Do not let the foundations be shaken

“many are in danger of receiving theories and sophistries that undermine the foundation pillars of the faith.”

Lt263-1904.13

“Those who try to bring in theories that would remove the pillars of our faith concerning the sanctuary, or concerning the personality of God or of Christ, are working as blind men. They are seeking to bring in uncertainties and to set the people of God adrift, without an anchor.”

Ms62-1905.14

“Let none seek to tear away the foundations of our faith,—the foundations that were laid at the beginning of our work, by prayerful study of the Word and by revelation. Upon these foundations we have been building for more than fifty years. Men may suppose that they have found a new way, that they can lay a stronger foundation than that which has been laid; but this is a great deception.”

GW 307.1

Need to make decided decisions now!

“I was shown a platform, braced by solid timbers, the truths of the word of God. Some one high in responsibility in the medical work was directing this man and that man to loosen the timbers supporting this platform. Then I heard a voice saying, “Where are the watchmen that ought to be standing on the walls of Zion? Are they asleep? How can they be silent? This foundation was built by the Master Worker, and will stand the storm and tempest. Will they permit this man to present doctrines that deny the past experience of the people of God? The time has come to take decided action.”

The steps that lead to Apostasy

"The first step of apostasy is to get up a creed, telling us what we shall believe. The second is, to make that creed a test of fellowship. The third is to try members by that creed. J.M. Loughborough, ARSH October 8, 1861, p. 149.7

The Old Truths are to be Revived

“The time has come when things must be called by their right names. The truth is to triumph gloriously, and those who have long been halting between two opinions must take their stand decidedly for or against the law of God. Some will take up with theories that misinterpret the Word of God and undermine the foundation of the truth that has been firmly established, point by point, and sealed by the power of the Holy Spirit. The old truths are to be revived, in order that the false theories that have been brought in by the enemy may be intelligently met. There can be no unity between truth and error. We can unite with those who have been led into deception only when they are converted.”

The 7 year Roll-Out Plan - Laudato si

The Vision - This is not just a green encyclical. This is a paradigm shift. It is a socio-economic and socio-spiritual encyclical. It has an integral vision. Human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships: with God, with our neighbour and with the Earth itself (LSi, #66).

Only after 5 years of releasing this encyclical, Pope Francis announced a special Laudato Si year 2020 to 2021, this has never happened before. The 7-year Roll-Out Plan is an integral part of the Laudato Si Year.

LAUDATO SI' GOALS

HOPE FOR THE EARTH AND THE POOR

The Action Platform will be launched

This is a 7 year roll-out plan. Laudato Si was signed by Pope Francis on May 24 2015 on the Feast of Pentecost. Within two weeks of Laudato Si coming out Dale Jamieson who teaches in New York State University wrote "that this is the most important environmental text of the 21st century". A lay person saying this about a papal encyclical (formal letter). Looking back, we are 6 years from the publication of Laudato Si. This was a prophecy which has come true.

Laudato Si' Action Platform

The Why, the What and the How

Why: to really motivate all into action. The first two cries are already in Laudato Si. The cry of the Earth, and the cry of the Poor; the third cry we now see emerging in the global community: The cry of the Children.

What: Ecological conversion begins with Families – Collaborating with families. Parishes and Dioceses; Education and institutions – schools and universities; Hospitals and Health Care Centers; Economy – Businesses, co-operatives and farms, Organizations – Sports groups, NGOs, communication centers, all groups.

- Religious Orders – Provinces, Communities, Congregations, etc...
- So, the idea is to propose to families, parishes, businesses, schools, groups, religious orders, in the next 7 years become a Laudato Si Family. Laudato Si School, Laudato Si Business, Laudato Si Religious Order, Laudato Si Parish.

Amos 8:11

“Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:”

Genesis 47:15

“And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.”

Sermon on the mount is about holiness

The belief that holiness comes by observing particular laws "leads us to a rigid religiosity, a rigidity that eliminates that freedom of the Spirit which Christ's redemption gives us. Beware of this rigidity that they propose," he said.

Matthew 5:48 - Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

The 3 Mandates of the Encyclical

On October 4th, St. Francis Day, THE FOUNDATION will launch important, ground-breaking, worldwide initiatives to address the first of many advances in its service of human ecology... The Foundation's mission has been divided into THREE MANDATES, reflecting the wishes of Pope Francis:

"The First Mandate refers to the Encyclical's advocacy of respect and care for the natural world, consonant with the words and deeds of St. Francis of Assisi. Through its programs, the Foundation will urge attention to the proper custodianship of our world through responsible commerce and through the weighing of organizations' activities and their implications on THE ENVIRONMENT."

THE SECOND MANDATE refers to the urgent need to ADDRESS HUMAN ECOLOGY, as outlined in THE ENCYCLICAL, aligning technology with the most important of spiritual and ethical values and placing technology's dynamic instruments in their proper human perspective, for optimal use."

The THIRD MANDATE refers to the elements first introduced in Laudato Si' and expanded upon in the Pope's latest Encyclical Fratelli Tutti; that is, that we must cultivate sensibilities and passions among men and women so that we find true brotherhood and longed for peace in the world, regardless of a particular faith or political formulae. The ENCYCLICAL calls for a better kind of politics based upon refreshed principles of brotherhood and respect."

Christians pushing Sunday Rest Day

- On the feast of St. Francis, Oct. 4, leaders of world religions or their representatives will meet at the Vatican and in Rome to draft a statement to government leaders who will gather in Scotland in November for COP26, the U.N. climate summit.
- The British and Italian embassies to the Holy See and the Vatican Secretariat of State have hosted six virtual meetings since February with close to 40 leaders from world religions and 10 top climate scientists.

The movements that are happening today

In the face of social and environmental crises, the world would do well to follow the lead of its young people, Pope Francis said in a video message to mark the start of the Season of Creation.

Let us take advantage of their example and reflect on our lifestyle, especially during the moments of health, social and environmental crisis," Pope Francis said in a video released September 1 by the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network.

The Three Angels' Messages Of
Revelation 14:6-12

Watchman, what of the night?

“A time is coming when the law of God is, in a special sense, to be made void in our land. The rulers of our nation will, by LEGISLATIVE ENACTMENTS, enforce the SUNDAY LAW, and thus God's people be brought into great peril. When our nation, in its legislative councils, SHALL ENACT LAWS to bind THE CONSCIENCES OF MEN in regard to their religious privileges, ENFORCING SUNDAY OBSERVANCE, and bringing oppressive power to bear against those who keep the seventh-day Sabbath, the law of God will, to all intents and purposes, be made void in our land; and NATIONAL APOSTASY will be followed by NATIONAL RUIN.” {RH, December 18, 1888}

Laudato Si – Climate Change Encyclical

237. “On Sunday, our participation in the Eucharist has special importance. SUNDAY, like the Jewish Sabbath, is meant to be a day which heals our relationships with God, with ourselves, with others and with the world. SUNDAY is the day of the Resurrection, THE “FIRST DAY” OF THE NEW CREATION, whose first fruits are the Lord’s risen humanity, the pledge of the final transfiguration of all created reality. IT also proclaims “MAN’S ETERNAL REST IN GOD”... The law of weekly rest FORBADE WORK ON THE SEVENTH DAY.”

Idolatry in different form exists today

"Thousands deify nature while they deny the God of nature. Though IN A DIFFERENT FORM, IDOLATRY exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The God of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists—the God of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions—is little better than Baal, the sun-god of Phoenicia" (Great Controversy, p. 583).

The Great Controversy (1888 ed.), p. 610

"While many of our rulers are active agents of Satan, God also has his agents among the leading men of the nation. The enemy moves upon his servants to propose measures that would greatly impede the work of God; but statesmen who fear the Lord are influenced by holy angels to oppose such propositions with unanswerable arguments. Thus a few men will hold in check a powerful current of evil. The opposition of the enemies of truth will be restrained that the third angel's message may do its work. When the final warning shall be given, it will arrest the attention of these leading men through whom the Lord is now working, and some of them will accept it, and will stand with the people of God through the time of trouble."

Can't serve God and Mammon: Matthew 6:24

“...as long as persecution continued, the church remained comparatively pure. But as it ceased, converts were added who were less sincere and devoted, and the way was open for Satan to obtain a foothold. But there is no union between the Prince of light and the prince of darkness, and there can be no union between their followers.”

The Great Controversy p45

Past, Present and Future

When Christians consented to unite with those who were but half converted from paganism, they entered upon a path which led further and further from the truth. Satan exulted that he had succeeded in deceiving so large a number of the followers of Christ. He then brought his power to bear more fully upon these, and inspired them to persecute those who remained true to God.

None understood so well how to oppose the true Christian faith as did those who had once been its defenders; and these apostate Christians, uniting with their half-pagan companions, directed their warfare against the most essential features of the doctrines of Christ... After a long and severe conflict, the faithful few decided to dissolve all union with the apostate church if she still refused to free herself from falsehood and idolatry.

The Great Controversy p45

Hold on to the truth as in the Bible

They saw that separation was an absolute necessity if they would obey the word of God. They dared not tolerate errors fatal to their own souls, and set an example which would imperil the faith of their children and children's children.

To secure peace and unity they were ready to make any concession consistent with fidelity to God; but they felt that even peace would be too dearly purchased at the sacrifice of principle. If unity could be secured only by the compromise of truth and righteousness, then let there be difference, and even war.

Well would it be for the church and the world if the principles that actuated those steadfast souls were revived in the hearts of God's professed people."

The Great Controversy p45

CHRIST IN THE HEAVENLY SANCTUARY

Ecclesiastes
12:13

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.”

Ecclesiastes
12:14

“For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

Revelation 22:11

“He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.”
