Health Snippet - Collards

Health Benefits of Collards (Seek Medical Advice) Collard greens are loose leaf greens. Like kale, they belong to the cruciferous family. Unlike kale's curly, narrow leaves, collard greens' leaves are large, smooth, and flat. These plants are native to North America and have been a traditional part of the Southern American diet for hundreds of years.

Just 2 cups (72 grams) of raw collard greens provide: Calories: 24 Carbs: 4g, Fibre: 2.8g, Protein: 2g, Fat: 0.4g, Vitamin K: 128%, Calcium: 16%, Vitamin C: 28%, Folate: 23%, Vitamin A: 20%, Magnesium: 5%, Potassium: 3%, Phosphorus: 1%, etc...

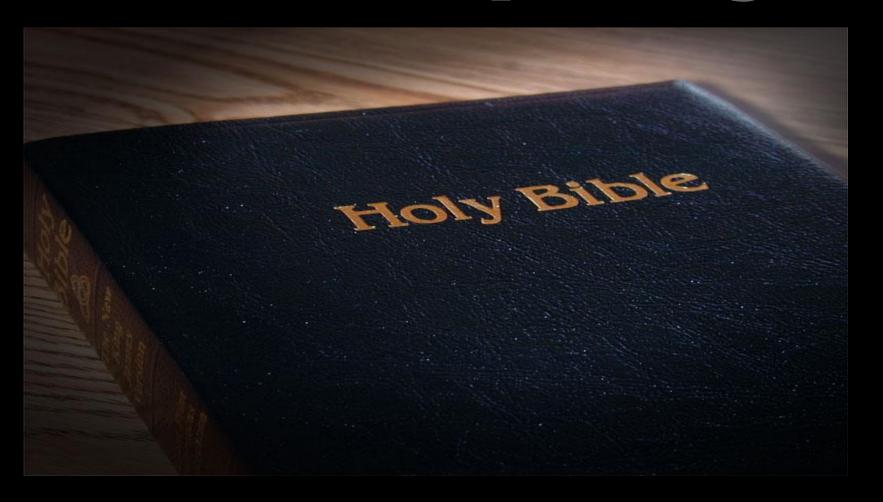

- 1. When broken down in your body, glucosinolates are converted to isothiocyanate (ITC). ITC protects your cells from damage and may help prevent various forms of cancer.
- 2. Collard greens are especially rich in calcium and vitamin K, both of which are important for bone health.
- 3. Vit. A, lutein and zeaxanthin prevent eye conditions like agerelated macular degeneration, cataracts & diabetic retinopathy.
- 4. It improved heart health measures like total and LDL (bad) cholesterol, as well as systolic blood pressure.
- 5. Sulforaphane prevents the overgrowth of Helicobacter pylori: which cause symptoms like bloating, nausea, and stomach pain. Precautions: high in vitamin K, could interfere with bloodthinning drugs like warfarin and coagulation, or blood clotting.

Can We Trust Bible Prophecy?

Yes, we Can!

King James Bible:Revelation 18:2

And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying,

Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

Present-day Babylon's Final Fall - Part 1

Background

We have shown in previous topics that the fortunes of the great apostate religious system of Babylon have risen and fallen throughout history. Revelation Chapters 17 and 18 depict Babylon's final fall as well as God's final call to those of His people who still remain within her false system of belief. These chapters then are closely linked.

And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth. Revelation 17:18

Here we see a woman and a city, each of which symbolises a religious system. This is a double symbolism. (We also saw a double symbolism in Revelation 17:9 with the seven heads representing seven mountains which in turn represented kingdoms or political entities).

In Chapter 17 the focus was on the harlot representing Babylon's corruption, and why she is ripe for destruction. But in Chapter 18 the focus changes to the great city, representing Babylon's oppressive, dominant power. The use of this symbol in Chapter 18 is fitting because it enables a graphic depiction of the destruction of spiritual Babylon.

AND OF THE
ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH =
spiritual fornication

Introduction

It is essential to understand the structure and purpose of Revelation Chapter 18. This chapter aptly portrays the utter and final destruction of Babylon in the form of seven songs, the first six of which are mournful dirges or laments. The seventh is a song of praise. Much space is devoted to describing Babylon's end. It is emphasized that her destruction comes suddenly and quickly.

Therefore her plagues will come in one day - death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her. Revelation 18:8

Three times in this chapter it is stated that in one hour her destruction comes.

The extensive amount of Scripture applied to the fall and destruction of Babylon indicates just how significant Babylon is in the sight of heaven. Babylon is a greater threat than most of us believe, more deceptive, more dangerous than we can imagine. Babylon is the great enemy of God and humanity.

Introduction (cont'd)

The natural inclination of the human heart is to compromise with Babylon. This has been the experience of many throughout history, because Babylon is the expression of the sinful nature of man. Babylon, after all, is in effect the natural outworking of the sinful human nature. Consequently it has a powerful appeal to human norms. The religion of Babylon temporarily satisfies the human heart's spiritual longings. However her principles are unacceptable to God, nor do her machinations meet mankind's ultimate spiritual needs.

The seven songs are structured into three groups: a pair, then three and finally two verses respectively. The first and last pairs are heaven-inspired. The central trio of verses is earthly inspired. The first pair relates why Babylon must be destroyed and the source from which that destruction will come. The central trio explains how Babylon will be destroyed and the totality of her destruction. The final duo of songs describes the permanency and the justice of Babylon's destruction.

The first song - Introduction

After these things I saw...

This expression denotes that here we have a new vision. The word after does not mean after the events of Chapter 17 but rather after the vision therein. Revelation Chapter 18 is then a second vision concerning the fall of Babylon.

Once more we see an example of repetition and enlargement - a method prevalent throughout Hebrew Scripture. Revelation Chapter 17 is a repetition and enlargement of Revelation 16:19 which states:

Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. Revelation 16:19

The first song – Introduction (cont'd)

Revelation Chapter 18 is an enlargement of Revelation Chapter 17, especially verse 16:

And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. Revelation 17:16

... another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. And he cried mightily with a loud voice... Revelation 18:1-2a

Comparing the Angels Work

The angel of Revelation 17:1 was one of the plague-angels. The expression another angel indicates a new angel, distinct and superior in both his authority and in his message. Three features reveal this:

- 1. ...having great authority (or power) he commands attention and respect.
- 2. ...the earth was illuminated with his glory
- indicating that his message is worldwide.
- 3. He cried mightily with a strong voice it has a powerful effect. There is no escape from it.

When we compare this angel with the angel of Revelation Chapter 10 we find the following similarities.

Comparing the Angels Work (cont'd)

Comparison between the angels in Revelation Chapters 10 and 18
Revelation Chapter 10	Revelation Chapter 18
another mighty angel	another angelhaving great authority
His face was like the sun	The earth was illuminated with his glory
cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars	cried mightily with a loud voice

These similarities could suggest a similar type of message. However the message of Revelation 10 was the first angel's message of Revelation 14:6-7 which was fulfilled in the Great Second Advent Movement of 1840 -1844.

Comparing the Angels Work (cont'd)

A second angel's message proclaiming the fall of Babylon followed the first angel's message, and commenced in 1844. The following similarities between this message and the message of Revelation 18:1-2 indicate that Revelation 18:1-2 could be a repetition of the second angel's message of Revelation 14:8.

Comparison between the messages of Revelation 14:8 and 18:1-3
Revelation 14:8	Revelation 18:1-3
Babylon is fallen, is fallen	Babylonis fallen, is fallen (v2)
that great city	that great city (v3)
all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication	all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication (v3)

Comparing the Angels Work (cont'd)

On the other hand, the following contrasts between the two messages reveal that the message of Revelation Chapter 18 comes later.

Contrasts between the messages of Revelation 14:8 and 18:1-3
Revelation 14:8	Revelation 18:1-3
Proclaimed in 1844	Proclaimed prior to the seven last plagues
No mention of Babylon's supremacy	Babylon is supreme
No mention of kings, merchants, etc supporting Babylon.	Babylon receives universal support including kings and merchants
No mention of the depth of Babylon's fall	Babylon has fallen into deep apostasy and is under Satanic control
No mention of the extent of her guilt	Babylon's guilt is as high as heaven
No mention of Babylon's destruction	Babylon is fully ripe for destruction
Fulfilled in the Protestant churches of the USA who in 1844 rejected the first Angel's message of Revelation 14:6-7	Fulfilled when Christendom is fully apostate and corrupt – yet future.

Further analysis reveals the time setting of the message of Revelation Chapter 18:

- 1. Babylon is called Babylon the great. In the Old Testament, from which this term is borrowed, Babylon was called great when she gained universal sway.
- Is not this great Babylon that I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honour of my majesty? Daniel 4:30
- Similarly, spiritual Babylon will be called great when she gains an overarching global influence.
- 2. The extent of Babylon's fall from grace relates to the Protestant component of Babylon. That fall began in 1844 when, in general, the Protestant churches in the USA began to reject the truth of God. Since that time they have been sliding deeper into apostasy. At the very time when they are making lofty claims, God reveals that these churches are coming under the control of occult powers and are supporting the mother church.

Babylon's Spiritual condition

Babylon...has become a habitation of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird!

Revelation 18:2.

The condition of the churches of spiritual Babylon is described in three different ways.

... by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. Matthew 18:16

1. Babylon becomes the habitation of demons. This term is used only twice in the New Testament. Paul declared of believers:

...in whom you also are being built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

Ephesians 2:22

Babylon's spiritual condition (cont'd)

The Christian church is to be the dwelling place of God the Holy Spirit. But if the church disobeys or apostatizes and grieves the Holy Spirit, His place is taken by another type of spirit - the spirits of demons. This will become the situation with the churches of Babylon. It is a serious warning to all churches and all individual Christians. Christian individuals who were once the dwelling place of God are fast becoming the dwelling place of devils: what is true of a church may also be true of an individual.

2. Babylon becomes a prison for every foul spirit, that is, of every unclean angel. Unclean spirits are spiritually and morally unclean. They are foul. They defile those who do not shun them.

What is Spiritual Fornication?

Give no regard to mediums and familiar spirits; do not seek after them, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God. Leviticus 19:31

Spiritism defiles. Evil spirits defile and today the churches are in the process of becoming the prison or holders of these spirits, and once they have gained entrance, it will be impossible to be rid of them.

3. Babylon becomes a cage for every unclean and hated bird. John draws on the Old Testament descriptions of ancient Babylon, Nineveh and Edom in their desolate, ruinous state, in which they were the abode of unclean birds. This represents the spiritual desolation that modern Babylon will ultimately reach.

What is God's command regarding Babylon?

"Come out of her my people."

1. What is the second part of God's great three-point message? Revelation 14:8

"Babylon is fallen."

Listen to these awesome words from Revelation 14:8 and Revelation 18:4 "Babylon is fallen and is become the habitation of devils." "Come out of her my people that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities."

The message is clear "Come out of Babylon or be lost". Do you know what Babylon is? Is there a chance that you might be in Babylon and not know it?

What reasons does God give for calling His people out?

The command is to God's people. Many are still in Babylon. God is lovingly calling them out before the plagues fall upon Babylon. (Babylon will not be reformed but destroyed).

Babylon:

- a. Habitation of DEVILS
- b. Hold of every foul spirit c. Nations drink her wine (false doctrines) d. Kings committed fornication with her e. Don't partake of her SINS

- f. Receive not her PLAGUES
- g. Her sins reached to HEAVEN h. God remembers her iniquities

There is no question that God means business about Babylon. Whatever Babylon may be, God's people had better be making their exodus (way out).

Some say Babylon is the literal city restored. What does the Bible say about this?

"And Babylon ... shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there." Isaiah 13:19-21

 Restored literal Babylon is not a possibility; God said it would never happen.

Christians will not immediately need to renounce their faith in God "simply on the basis of the reception of [this] new, unexpected information of a religious character from extraterrestrial civilizations." However, once the "religious content" originating from outside the earth "has been verified," they will have to conduct "a rereading [of the Gospel] inclusive of the new data..." - Vatican Astronomer and Jesuit priest Father Giuseppe Tanzella-Nitti

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:3

For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. – Revelation 18:3

Babylon's pre-eminence

For all the nations...

This indicates that Babylon finally gains world pre-eminence. It is a repetition of Revelation 14:8:

Babylon...is fallen...because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

...have drunk of the wine...

Revelation Chapter 18 reveals the final result of Babylon leading the nations to drink of her wine. Wine represents teachings or doctrines. Intoxicating wine denotes false or erroneous doctrines.

Babylon's pre-eminence (cont'd)

As a result of the nations absorbing the false teachings of spiritual Babylon, they have become spiritually insensitive. Just as intoxicating wine benumbs the senses and paralyses the brain, so the wine of Babylon benumbs the spiritual faculties. It prevents people from discerning truth from error and right from wrong. False teaching enables leaders of spurious religion to manipulate their followers, to deceive them and secure their support. Through these strategies they will achieve their goal the domination of humankind.

...of the wrath of her fornication...

Spiritual Fornication....

This wine is spoken of as the wine of the wrath of her fornication because Babylon's doctrines lead those who assimilate them to become intolerant and aggressive toward those who differ with their views. Babylon fosters intolerance.

...the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her...

The word fornication indicates unlawful or illicit union. This constitutes spiritual adultery. Scripture associates fornication with three practices:

1. Idolatry - spiritual unfaithfulness to God.

The prophet Ezekiel declares:

You have also ... made for yourself male images (idols) and played the harlot with them. Ezekiel 16:17

2. Friendship with the degenerate world is classed as spiritual adultery.

Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. James 4:4.

3. The union of church and state. This is what is emphasized in Revelation Chapters 17 and 18.

and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her....

The merchants of the earth are waxed rich

The first type of spiritual adultery has been exhibited through the centuries in Roman Catholic forms of worship by the use of idolatrous statues and pictures; the adoration of the wafer in the Mass, and so on. The second type has been exhibited by the papacy in its worldly practices. The third type - the union of church and state - has been practiced by the Church of Rome through the ages with her collaboration with civil governments.

Today the apostate Protestant churches also seek political support for their policies.

The commercial, economic and financial world will also support Babylon in the final conflict:

... and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance (power or influence) of her luxury. Revelation 18:3

Papal Rome & Spiritual Fornication...

The reference is to spiritual wares, indulgences, idolatries, superstitions, worldly compromises, wherewith the apostate church has made merchandise of men. This applies especially to Rome, but the Greek and even in a less degree the Protestant churches are not guiltless. - Robert Jamieson et al., Commentary Critical and Explanatory on the Whole Bible (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans Publishing, 1871)

The Catholic church is the biggest financial power, wealth accumulator and property owner in existence. She is a greater possessor of material riches than any other single institution, corporation, bank, giant trust, government or state, of the whole globe. The pope as the visible ruler of this immense amassment of wealth is consequently the richest individual of the twentieth century. No one can realistically assess how much he is worth in terms of billions of dollars. - Avro Manhatten, The Vatican Billions (Los Angeles: Chick Publications, 1983)

THE SUN

When Nimrod died, his spirit became the Sun and was reincarnated as the son of Semmirimus.

When the ancients viewed the sun, they saw it as a cross in the sky. Ancient Chaldean and Assyrian cylinders show how the sun was depicted as the sun.

The Virgin Mary is the "Queen of Heaven" is church doctrine in the Roman Catholic Church.

There have been countless accounts of supernatural phenomena involving statues, apparitions, and healings. Since Mary-worship is found nowhere in the writings of the first Christians, it is believed to be adopted by the Roman Church after the 4th century A.D.

Fish God was the Return of Nimrod from the world of the Dead

1- Fish were originally worshiped as a symbol of Nimrod, the sun god, who after being killed, was reborn in his wife Semiramus' womb. Her womb was represented as "the waters of the great deep".

Nimrod then became the fish-god being reborn in these "waters."

-Oannes, the Babylonian fish-god was the return of Nimrod from the world of the dead. He is depicted as half-fish with the fish's head worn over his own.

2- This stone relief is from a temple laver from Assyria found in the Pergamum Museum in East Berlin. Each priest is depicted wearing a fish-head mitre. One of the names of this God in Babylon and Philistia was Dagon

(dag=Fish, on=Sun) "The head of the fish formed a mitre above that of a man, while its scaly, fin-like tail fell as a cloak behind, leaving the human feet and limbs exposed." Layard's Babylon & Ninevah, p. 343

- 6- Neptune (Poseidon), part man and part fish, ruler of the underworld or the sea.
- 7- Vishnu, Hindu fish-god, symbol of the sun rising from the sea.
- 8- Mitres are used universally by Catholics popes, cardinals, and bishops.

The design of this hat is not the result of Catholic creativity, but does infact have mythological significance.

The Bible Warns us Against use of Prayer Beads

"But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. "And when you pray, do not...repeat the same words over and over as the Gentiles (pagans) do, for they think they will be heard for their much speaking." (Matthew 6:7)
"But when praying, do not say the same things over and over again, just as the people of the nations do, for they imagine they will get a hearing for their use of many words," (Matthew 6:7)

Pagan Babylon Prayer Beads

- Mesopotamian: priest holds a circle of prayer beads in his hands.
- · Hindu: deity holds prayer beads. Beads were also used in Greece and Rome.

- Egyptian: beads were commonly buried with pharaohs.
- Beads in the catholic church are used for repetitive prayer. When a catholic confesses a sin to their priest, he or she is often required to repeat "Hail Mary's." The beeds are also used in daily prayer.
- Moslems and Buddhists currently use prayer beads.

Serpent (Satan) "Vatican"

The Serpent was referred to as the "Life Giving" serpent, the "Divining Serpent," and carried souls to the next life.

1- Serpent • Rome: winged serpent on chariot, carrying soul to heaven.

2- Egypt. Winged serpent guardians, King Tut's throne, Cairo, Egypt. The serpent was mainly worshipped in Egypt as the "Life Giver." 3- Roman bath in Bath, England. The serpent is a symbol of healing. 4- Mayan serpent sun-god, Quetzalcoatle, coming out of the mouth of the dragon, Island of Cozumel, 1000 A.D. 5- Serpent crosiers were commonly carried by bishops and high Catholic Church officials in the Middle Ages. They claim that the crosier represents the shepherd's crook, but it can be traced to the divining staff or augur of Pontifex Maximus of ancient Rome who inherited it from the priests of Babylon.

6- Serpent door handle on the Catholic St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco, California. 7- Although serpent symbolism in Catholicism is not prevalent, there are some curios aspects like this dragon on a large papal crest in the Vatican Museum Revelation 12:9 'the Dragon, the old Serpent called Devil or Satan...'.
as well as the name "Vatican" that raise questions.

"Vatis" = Diviner; "Can" = Serpent; "Vatican" = Divining Serpent

The meaning of the word 'Vatican'... The word 'vatican' comes from Latin and is a contraction of two words in the following way:

* 'Vatis' = 'profetic' or 'diviner' * 'Can' = 'serpent/snake'

These two words combined make: * 'the profetic- or made devine serpent'

The Vatican is a place, so you may say, that 'Vatican' means 'the place of the profetic- and worshipped serpent'.

Trying to translate 'divining serpent' into every-day-English I would say it means:

'A spiritual serpent that is worshipped as god'. And we know from the Bible who that 'demonic serpent' is...the devil!.

Fluer de lis... Do you ever wonder where this symbol came from?

Originally the central element of the triple Atef Crown was woven from "green plant stems,"

(the original prototype of the 'fleur-de-lis' symbol) and surrounded by a plume of two feathers, one each on either side.

Later, the central element was often shown as a golden sun disc. Taking us back as far as

Note the Fleur-de-lis staff in her hand and the symbol on the crown on her head. The Catholics have merely substituted a false veneration of Mary for the original worship of Semiramis, Queen of Heaven with the infant Tammuz on her lap. Pope Paul VI Coat of Arms. Alexander Hishop tells us, Kronos signifies "The Horned one." As a horn is a well known Oriental emblem for power or might, Kronos, "The Horned one," was, according to the mystic system, just a synonym for the Scriptural epithet applied to Nimrod — "The mighty one" (Gen 10:8), "He began to be mighty on the earth..."

Trident

1- Poseidon or Neptune, Ruler of the Sea (Pope is Holy See = Admiralty Law) or underworld, holds the trident, traceable to the horned, hoofed bull (Nimrod) sun-god of Babylon, who carried the trident or pitchfork.
see Serpent (=Devil) in his right hand.

2- NIMROD names: Adad, Enlil, Baal, Neptune, Poseidon and other gods of storm and sea were depicted as carrying tridents. It was symbolic of lightning (Lucifer). Wavy lines represent the Female Womb and were associated with the serpent; the straight line is male, representing the Phallus; thus, this symbol represents the male and female union.
3- Tridents, as weapons found among the Hindu gods, a Fertility symbol throughout the east.

- 4- The trident, projecting from the head of Jesus on a Roman Catholic Madonna and child image. The same symbol as found on clothing and regalia, architecture, and art.
 - 5- A cross on the altar of Catholic St. Paul's Cathedral (London) displaying four tridents.

Closing Remarks

The Church of Rome is the largest multinational in the world. Her tentacles spread through nearly all other multi-nationals as a result of her astute financial investments. This means that she influences perhaps the majority of global economics. By their cooperation with Babylon, the world's merchants are being enriched, and in this way — as predicted in Revelation 13:17 - Babylon will be able to boycott all who do not comply with her policies.

We have already established from Revelation 18:2-3 that this passage depicts the end time when Babylon will have gained pre-eminence and Christendom will be enveloped in dense spiritual darkness. Satanic powers will then be in full control of most religious bodies. However if we go back to Verse 1, we find that the setting is still prior to the close of probation and the outpouring of the seven last plagues.

Revelation 18:1

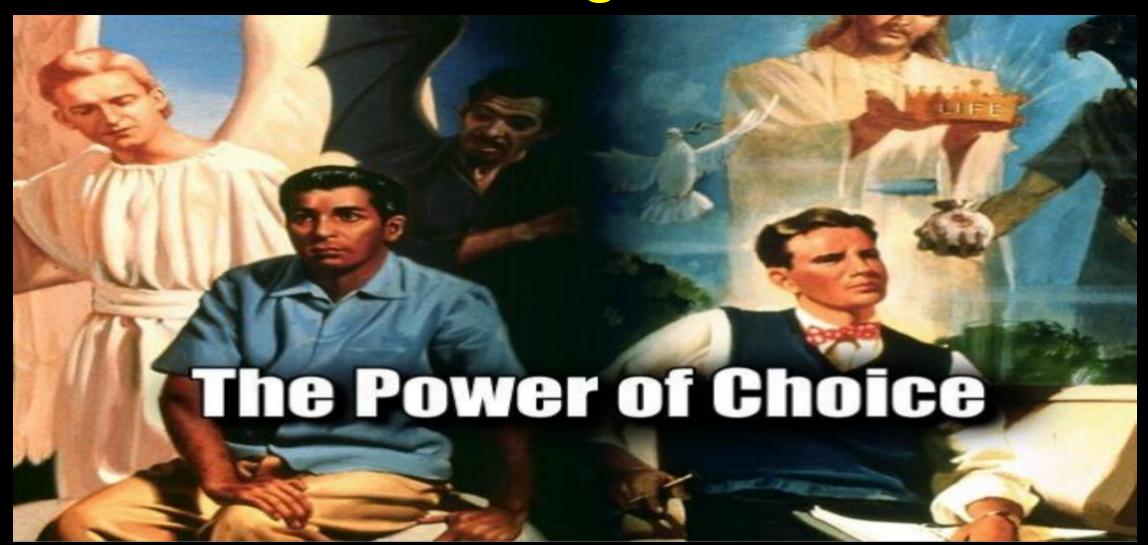

Isaiah Chapter 60 describes a time of worldwide spiritual darkness. But God's people will receive spiritual light and glory in such a measure that it will enlighten the world. The result will be a tremendous ingathering of converts to Christ and the remnant of the woman's seed will be fully made up.

The prophet Joel predicted that at the time of the day of the Lord - the close of probation - dramatic events will occur to complete the work of the gospel to the world.

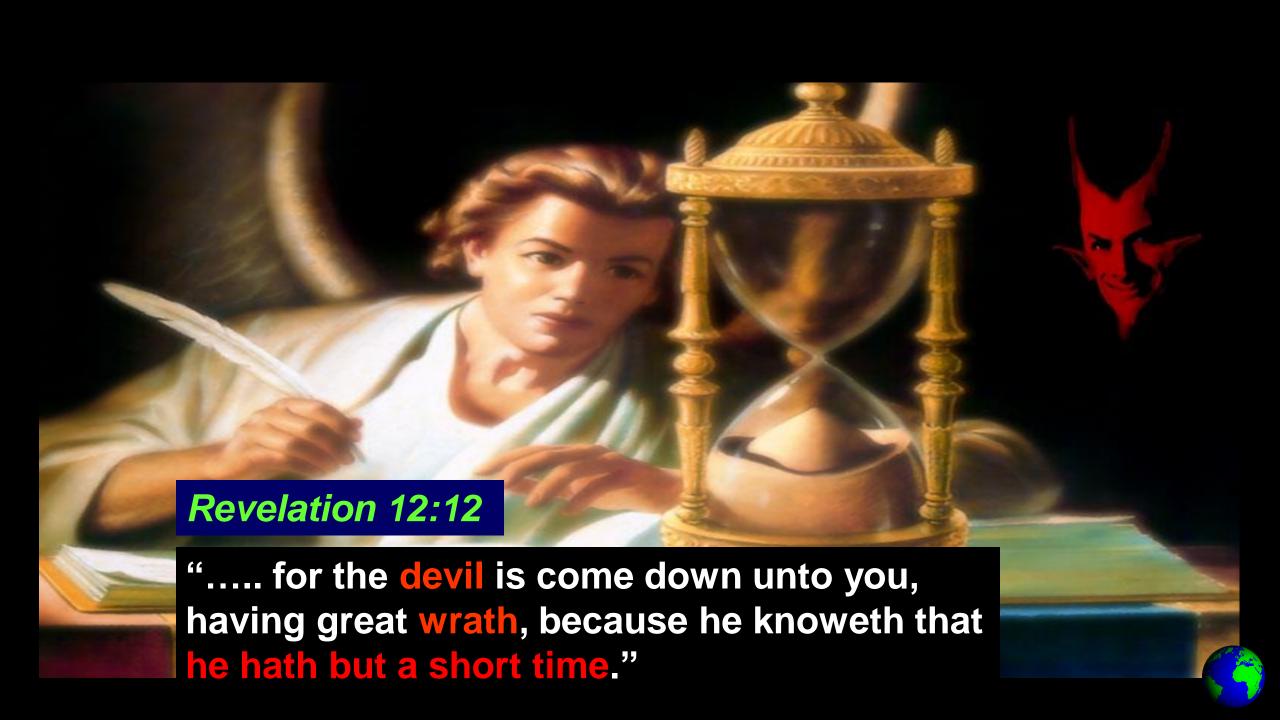

Prior to the close of probation and the Second Advent of Christ there will be a final Pentecost. As a result the voice of God - the message of God – will resonate throughout the world like the sound of many waters. The symbolism of this indicates that it will sound with great power. In other words, this will be the Loud Cry.
