Health Snippet – Corn

Health Benefits of Corn (Seek Medical Advice)

Also known as maize (Zea mays), corn is one of the world's most popular cereal grains. Popcorn and sweet corn are popular varieties, but refined corn products are also widely consumed, frequently as ingredients in processed food. Corn is typically yellow but comes in a variety of other colours, such as red, orange, purple, blue, white, and black.

Calories: 96, Water: 73%, Protein: 3.4g, Carbs: 21g, Sugar: 4.5g, Fibre: 2.4g, Fat: 1.5g, etc...

Popcorn has: Manganese, Phosphorus, Magnesium, Zinc, Copper.

Sweet corn has: Pantothenic acid, Folate, Vitamin B6, Niacin, Potassium, etc...

Eye health: Lutein and zeaxanthin are the predominant in corn, and reduce risk of both macular degeneration and cataracts.

Prevention of diverticular disease: 18-year study in 47,228 men suggests that popcorn protects against diverticular disease.

Prostatitis: quercetin in corn plays an important role in treatment

Alzheimer's and dementia: quercetin protects neuron cells and reduces neuro-inflammation reducing the incidence of dementia.

Corn is generally considered safe. However, some concerns exist.

Corn intolerance: One study showed that corn zein caused an inflammatory reaction in people with celiac disease.

Babylon's Final Fall – Part 2

Past > Present > Future

Introduction – The Second Song

The second song of the first duo gives the reason for, and the source of, Babylon's destruction: God's final call ...another voice... This denotes a distinctive call that blends with the message exposing Babylon.

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:4

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. —
Revelation 8:4

True Believers are still in Babylon!

There are two reasons why some true believers are still in Babylon almost until the close of probation.

1. These people have not received the light which reveals to them the errors and the true status of Babylon.
2. While in Babylon they may have found Christ and become children of God.
 - Therefore they will need to be called out.

...lest you share in her sins...

Individuals who are aware of Babylon's sins and remain with her become partakers of Babylon's sins. They are judged as sharing the responsibility for those sins. This is why God has called His people out of apostasy through the centuries.

A person's example influences other people. If an individual, after having been enlightened as to Babylon's significance remains within it and supports it, they are publicly declaring their support for that organization's goals and methods.

On the other hand if a person withdraws from Babylon, they declare their rejection of that organization. Such individuals bear witness to others of the truth of God within the world.

The first day of the week

...lest you share in her sins... (cont'd)

This call of God is in contradistinction to that of the natural trends of the world's current global civilizing trends today. The calls that are sounding today tell us to unite as a common humanity, to override our differences, to find an accord, to end the divisions and conflicts that separate mankind. The call for the unification is the order of the day and this is apparent in almost every sphere of modern life. Yet God's call is the direct opposite – to come out from the ordinary, to be separate from the status quo, to seek division from the world, to polarize opinion: in place of fellowship with the global trend to conformity, a separation from anything that is ordained by a solely human quest.

Instead of forgetting our differences with errant belief, God wants us to protect and defend our differences - if they are Bible based. Unity with error leads to apostasy. God calls for unity only in truth. Instead of superficial sentiment, it must be based on principled love.

...lest you share in her sins... (cont'd)

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 1 John 5:3

True love for Christ involves obedience to Him; however this is not a popular concept.

In the end time Babylon's sins will be so evident that to remain in her will mean that the individual is equally guilty of her transgressions. To remain in Babylon means that one loves popularity rather than Christ, that one accepts convenient error more than truth, that one conforms to the tradition's of men rather than the commandments of God, that one enjoys the shallow praise of men more than the heartfelt praise of God.

- This final call also means escape from Babylon's punishment.

Tower of Babel & Spiritual Babylon

The imagery here may allude to the Tower of Babel of Genesis Chapter 11.

There are four parallels between the building of the Tower of Babel and the building of spiritual Babylon:

1. The ancient Tower of Babel was a literal structure. In these last days a spiritual tower is being built.
2. The Tower of Babel was built as an act of defiance against God. Today a vast spiritual tower is being built in defiance of the truths of the true God.
3. The Tower of Babel was inspired by Lucifer. The great tower of Spiritual Babylon in the end time is also inspired by Lucifer.
4. The Tower of Babel was destroyed by the judgments of God. The tower of Spiritual Babylon will also be destroyed by the judgments of God.

Papal Rome is Spiritual Babylon

At the top of Monday's NBC Nightly News, February 26, 2013 anchor Brian Williams made this hyperbolic declaration:

"A moment of crisis for the Catholic Church hit by a wave of scandals, just as the leaders must gather to select a new pope." Introducing the lead story moments later, Williams further hyped: "The problem for the Catholic Church is the drumbeat of scandal is now growing so loud and so vast, it's taking a lot of attention from this process."

In the report that followed, correspondent Anne Thompson ominously declared:

"... the world is seeing the darker side of the Church, the in-fighting and scandals.... It's all revealing the sometimes nasty politics behind the pageantry."

Papal Rome is Spiritual Babylon (cont'd)

Parallels between the calls out of Sodom and Babylon

The sin of Sodom was very grievous .	The sins of Spiritual Babylon are grievous - her sins have reached to heaven .
God decreed the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19:13).	God decrees the destruction of spiritual Babylon.
A remnant of believers was in Sodom.	A remnant of believers is in Babylon.
The remnant from Sodom was protected by angels.	Angels will again protect the remnant in Babylon.
The remnant was called out of Sodom.	God also calls the remnant in Babylon to come out.
Three angels were involved in the deliverance of Lot from Sodom	Three angels are involved in the call to come out of Spiritual Babylon
There were three calls to leave Sodom. (Genesis 19:12,15,17)	Three messages are given in calling the remnant out of Babylon.
Three individuals were rescued from Sodom.	Those who are rescued from Babylon will be those who have accepted the three angels' messages

Papal Rome is Spiritual Babylon (cont'd)

When God's people finally come out of Babylon there will only be two groups on earth – Babylon and the Remnant - the majority and the minority - the worshippers of the Beast and the worshippers of the Lamb - those who have the mark of the beast and those who have the seal of God - those who have the character of Satan and those who have the character of Christ.

When the observance of Sunday be mandatory, each person must decide whether to accept the sign of authority of God (Sabbath) or the authority of men (Sunday).

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:5

For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. - Revelation 18:5

When the remnant which remains in Babylon finally removes itself they will join God's final remnant, bringing it to its full complement. This will be a repetition of the experience of the early church.

At that time Jesus said:

And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd. - John 10:16

Parallels between the early church and the final Remnant

The early church	The final Remnant
There are other sheep - the Gentiles	Today there are other sheep in Babylon
which are not of this fold (the early church)	Today there are other sheep which are not of God's final Remnant
them also I must bring into the Christian faith	Today God's people who are still in Babylon are to be brought into the faith of the final Remnant they shall hear my voice in the gospel	In the end time Christ's scattered sheep will hear the voice of Christ in the special message of Revelation Chapter 18.
there will be one flock (or one fold) - the early Christian church	In the end there will be one remnant, the final flock of Revelation 12:17, the remnant of her seed on whom the dragon makes war, the remnant which keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.
Jesus finally said of his day, There will be one flock and one shepherd - Himself	In the end there will be only one shepherd - no earthly leaders claiming to be divine, but the Lord Jesus Christ alone. His people will be gathered together in a final union with Christ alone as their Shepherd.

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:6

Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. – Revelation 18:6

The Inquisitions function was principally assembled to repress all heretics of rights, depriving them of their estate and assets which became subject to the ownership of the Catholic treasury, with each relentlessly sought to destroy anyone who spoke, or even thought differently to the Catholic Church. This system for close to over six centuries became the legal framework throughout most of Europe that orchestrated one of the most confound religious orders in the course of mankind.

“Anyone who attempts to construe a personal view of God which conflicts with Church dogma must be burned without pity.” - Pope Innocent III reward her even as she rewarded you...

God recalls the crimes of Babylon in order to render just retribution. Generally God punishes according to one's works, but the degree of Babylon's punishment is to be double that which Babylon has meted out to the saints. Jeremiah declared of literal Babylon's punishment, as she hath done, so do to her (Jeremiah 50:15) but with spiritual Babylon it will be double measure.

and double unto her double according to her works

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:7

How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. –
Revelation 18:7

Jesuit Pope Francis working the Hegelian dialectic!!!

Remember he is not a simple Catholic, he is a Jesuit!!!

- Dialectic is a very old Jesuit principle.

In his latest revelations, Pope Francis said:

- "Through humility, soul searching, and prayerful contemplation we have gained a new understanding of certain dogmas. The church no longer believes in a literal hell where people suffer. This doctrine is incompatible with the infinite love of God.
- God is not a judge but a friend and a lover of humanity God seeks not to condemn but only to embrace. Like the fable of Adam and Eve, we see hell as a literary device Hell is merely a metaphor for the isolated soul, which like all souls ultimately will be united in love with God."

Examining the Wine of Babylon!!!

In a shocking speech that is reverberating across the world, Pope Francis declared that:

All religions are true, because they are true in the hearts of all those who believe in them.

- What other kind of truth is there?

In the past, the church has been harsh on those it deemed morally wrong or sinful.

Today, we no longer judge. (We are to JUDGE "ALL" THINGS)

- Like a loving father, we never condemn our children.

Our church is big enough for heterosexuals and homosexuals, for the pro-life and the pro-choice! For conservatives and liberals, even communists are welcome and have joined us.

- We all love and worship the same God."

Pope Francis announcing that:

Catholicism is now a “modern and reasonable religion, which has undergone evolutionary changes. The time has come to abandon all intolerance. We must recognize that religious truth evolves and changes.

Truth is not absolute or set in stone.

Even atheists acknowledge the divine. Through acts of love and charity the atheist acknowledges God as well, and redeems his own soul, becoming an active participant in the redemption of humanity.”

One statement in the Pope's speech has sent traditionalists into a fit of confusion and hysteria...

"God is changing and evolving as we are, For God lives in us and in our hearts. When we spread love and kindness in the world, we touch our own divinity and recognize it.

The Bible is a beautiful holy book, but like all great and ancient works, some passages are outdated. Some even call for intolerance or judgment. The time has come to see these verses as later interpolations, contrary to the message of love and truth, which otherwise radiates through scripture. In accordance with our new understanding, we will begin to ordain women as cardinals, bishops and priests.

In the future, it is my hope that we will have a woman pope one day. Let no door be closed to women that is open to men!"

Continuing our study with Revelation 18:8

Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. – Revelation 18:8

Who will be effected by the plagues:

And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. – Revelation 16:2

Understanding the Verse...

In response to Babylon's secret boast, God metes out death, mourning and famine.

Death here probably denotes the loss of a husband. Babylon's husband comprises the political rulers of the earth who will finally turn upon her. Thus, instead of seeing no sorrow, Babylon mourns because of her loss.

As a result of the loss of those who have provided support for her, she suffers famine – that is, great want.

This corresponds with Revelation 17:16: And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

The Mother of Harlots

She has many Daughters

And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, (white) and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

The Roman title "Pontifex Maximus" was rendered in Greek inscriptions and literature of the time as ἀρχιερεὺς "archiereus" (literally, "high priest")

...And she will be utterly burned with fire...

Babylon burning with fire refers to the destruction of the harlot of Babylon for she says, I sit a queen. This is the religious element of Babylon - because a woman represents a church. The harlot represents the religious leaders, the clergy, who will be destroyed by their followers. This is essentially the same as the drying up of the Euphrates, but in this chapter it is symbolized by spiritual fire.

Consequently the burning here is not the burning of Vatican City. The Vatican, in Revelation is represented by the seat or the throne of the beast (Revelation 16:10). This burning is a spiritual burning, rather than a literal burning. Babylon's punishment lies in the plagues: these do not include literal fire.

Babylon consists of three main parts

Now the great city was divided into three parts... Revelation 16:19

These three parts consist of the dragon, the beast and the false prophet (Revelation 16:13).

1. The dragon represents kings, rulers and governors under the brand of antichrist.
2. The beast represents the Papacy.
3. The false prophet represents the apostate Protestants allied with the civil power.

In addition there is the River Euphrates (Revelation 16:12) which represents the multitudes who support Babylon around the globe and who therefore constitute a part of Babylon.

Revelation 16:13-14,16, 6th Bowl

¹³ "And I saw 3 EVIL SPIRITS that looked like FROGS leap from the mouths of the Dragon, the Beast, & the False Prophet.

¹⁴ They are DEMONIC SPIRITS who work Miracles & go out to all the Rulers of the World to gather them for battle against the Lord on that Great Judgment Day of God the Almighty.

¹⁶ & the Demonic Spirits gathered All the Rulers & their Armies to a place with the Hebrew name ARMAGEDDON."

Therefore her plagues will come in one day...

Some question the application of the year/day principle here, because verses 10, 17 and 19 speak of Babylon's punishment as coming in one hour, not in a day or a year. We suggest that one hour could apply to a particular aspect of punishment in the plagues.

Notice the three statements:

...in one hour your judgment has come. v10

For in one hour such great riches came to nothing... v17

For in one hour she is made desolate... v19

This will likely be fulfilled during the sixth and seventh plagues. The seven plagues are poured upon the Babylonian world, meaning they will encompass the whole world, except for the saints. Thus the plagues are not universal but worldwide. Nevertheless, the final punishment of those comprising Babylon occurs in the seventh plague.

1st Plague - Grievous Sores

And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. —

Revelation 16:2

2nd Plague - Oceans clot like blood

And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. – Revelation 16:3

3rd Plague - Fresh water turns blood

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. —

Revelation 16

4th Plague - Scorching Sun

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. – Revelation 16

5th Plague - Darkness

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

– Revelation 16

6th Plague – 3 Unclean Spirits

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. – Revelation 16

7th Plague - Ends in Jesus 2nd Coming

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.. – Revelation 16

The third song - Introduction

The central section of Revelation 18 consists of three songs. These are earthly songs sung by Babylon's three main supporters - the kings or political rulers, the merchants, and the maritime world.

The third song is sung by the kings or political rulers:

The kings lament the suddenness of Babylon's doom. This is a symbolic picture. It is borrowed from Jeremiah's description of the destruction of ancient Babylon and also of Ezekiel's description of the destruction of ancient Tyre. It illustrates the sudden and total destruction of Spiritual Babylon.

Through Babylon they obtained influence, power, and material gain as they received the mark of the beast. Now they realize that they have lost out on that which is worth more than all the political advantage, power, and riches of the whole earth. Their temporal riches are now destroyed, but they have no spiritual wealth. They have given their time to the great whore and missed out on an eternity with Jesus. They ignored the One who owns the cattle on a thousand hills. They now find that Solomon was right; all earthly pursuits are vanity.

The list of thirty commodities commences with gold and concludes with the souls (persons) of men (vv12-13).

This reveals how Babylon - and those who are influenced by her doctrines - evaluates human beings. Their estimation is exactly the opposite to that of Heaven.
