Health Snippet – Nutrition: Microgreens

What Are Microgreens?

- Microgreens are young vegetable greens that are approximately 1–3 inches (2.5–7.5 cm) tall.
- They have an aromatic flavor and concentrated nutrient content and come in a variety of colors and textures.
- Microgreens are considered baby plants, falling somewhere between a sprout and baby green.

In fact, research comparing microgreens to more mature greens reports that nutrient levels in microgreens can be up to nine times higher than those found in mature greens. Research also shows that they contain a wider variety of polyphenols and other antioxidants than their mature counterparts.

One study measured vitamin and antioxidant concentrations in 25 commercially available microgreens. These levels were then compared to levels recorded in the USDA National Nutrient Database for mature leaves. Although vitamin and antioxidant levels varied, levels measured in microgreens were up to 40 times higher than those recorded for more mature leaves.

Heart disease: Microgreens are a rich source of polyphenols, a class of antioxidants linked to a lower risk of heart disease. Animal studies show that microgreens may lower triglyceride and “bad” LDL cholesterol levels.

Alzheimer’s disease: Antioxidant-rich foods, including those containing high amounts of polyphenols, may be linked to a lower risk of Alzheimer’s disease.

Diabetes: Antioxidants may help reduce the type of stress that can prevent sugar from properly entering cells. In lab studies, fenugreek microgreens appeared to enhance cellular sugar uptake by 25-44%

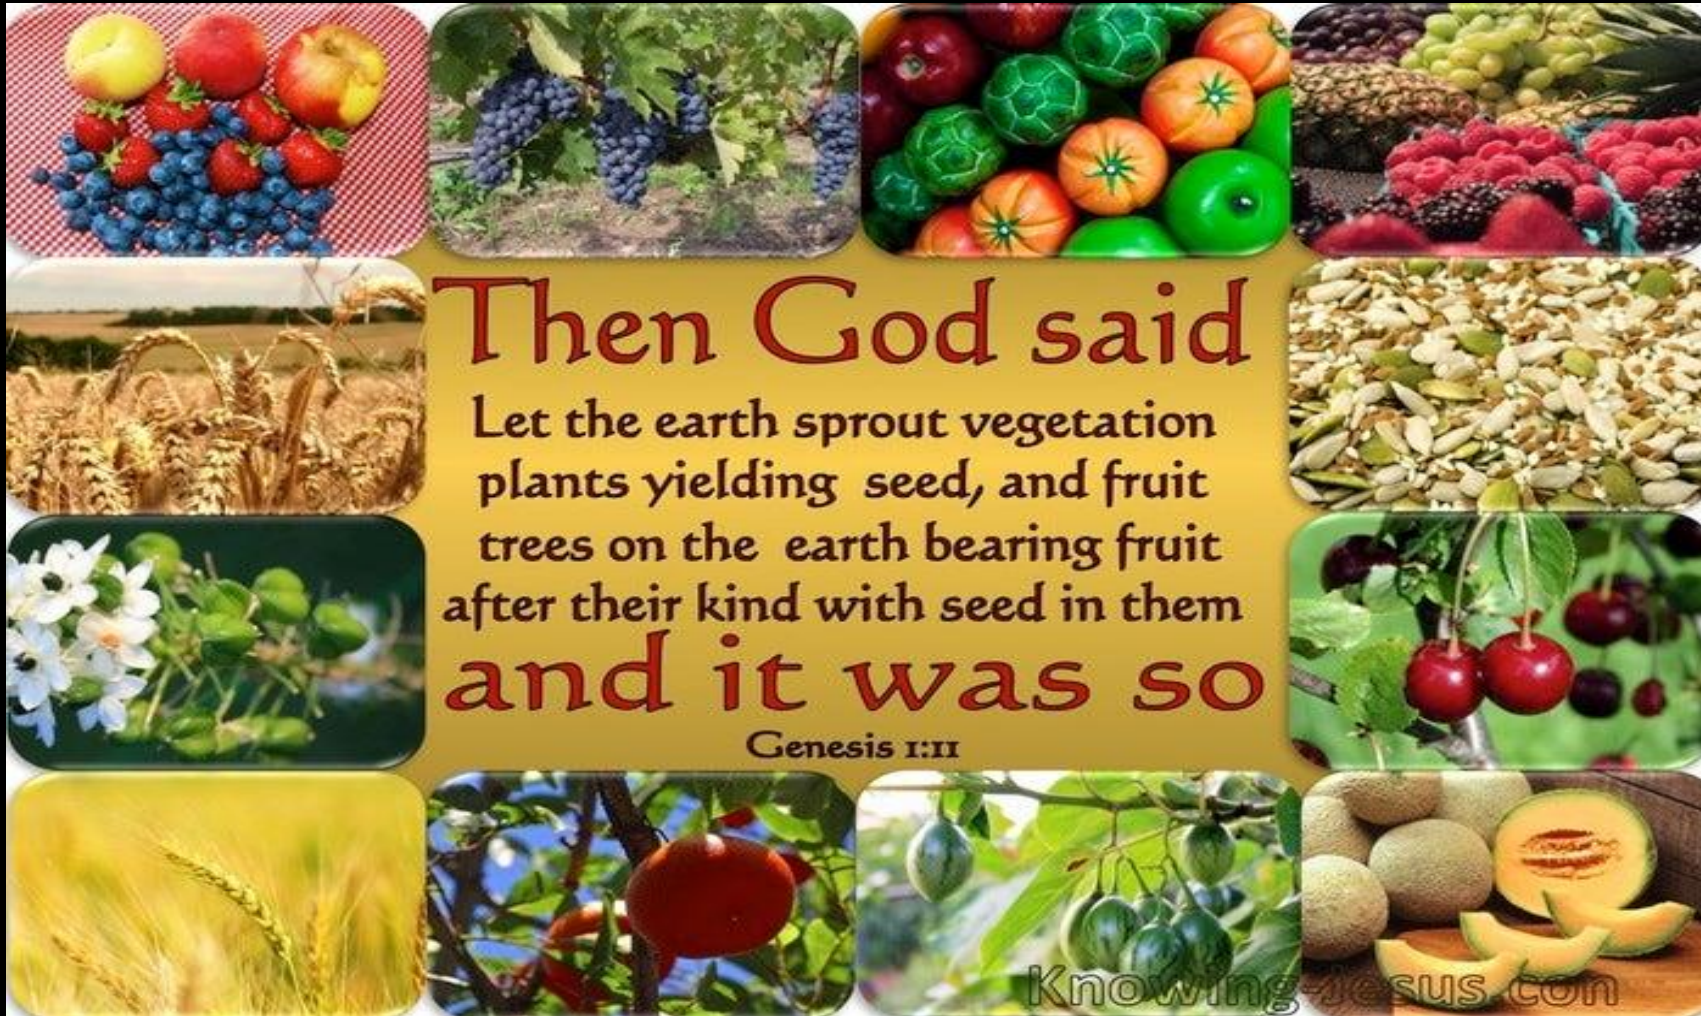

Certain cancers: Antioxidant-rich fruits and vegetables, especially those rich in polyphenols, may lower the risk of various types of cancer. Polyphenol-rich microgreens may be expected to have similar effects.

It Was The last day in Pompeii...

No one expected it to happen!

The last day in Pompeii...

August 24, A.D. 79. dawned like any other summer day in Pompeii a town in southern Italy.

The sun was shining brightly. The Bay of Naples was tranquil. There was buying and selling in the market place.

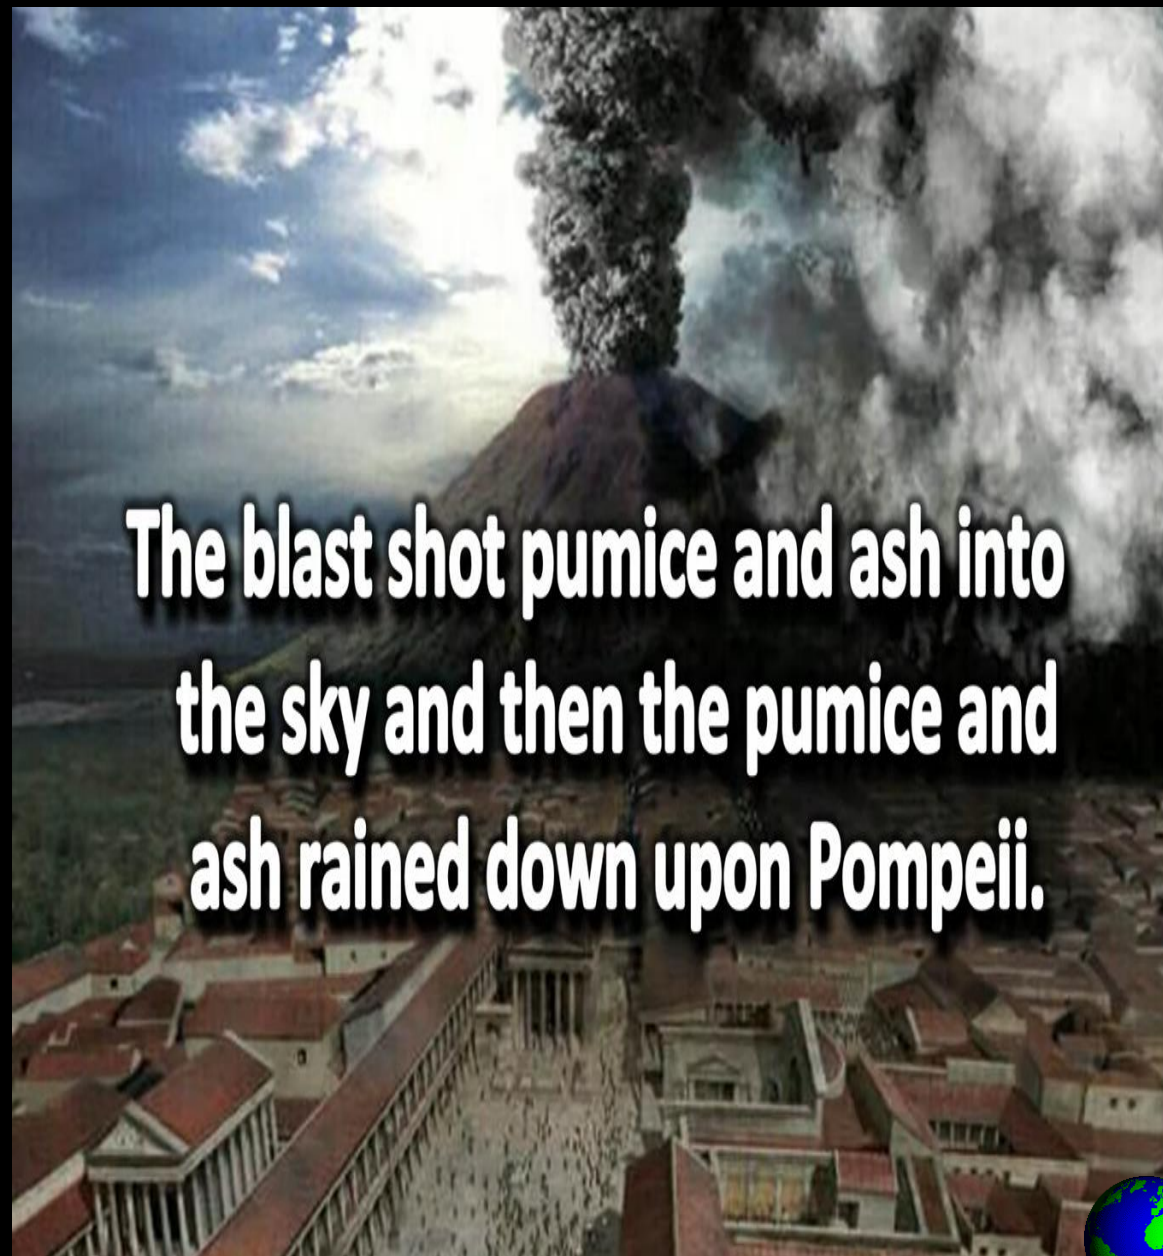

Time for lunch came, and storekeepers closed their doors. A baker shoved eighty-one loaves of bread into his oven. A customer laid some coins on a counter in a wine shop.

No suspected that the very big hill was in fact a sleeping volcano that for hundreds of years was building up pressure and then suddenly it erupted.

The blast shot pumice and ash into the sky and then the pumice and ash rained down upon Pompeii.

Most of the 20,000 residents fled to safety.

Those who escaped through the fields tied pillows over their heads to protect them from the rocks that were falling out of the sky!

But some lingered--about 2,000.

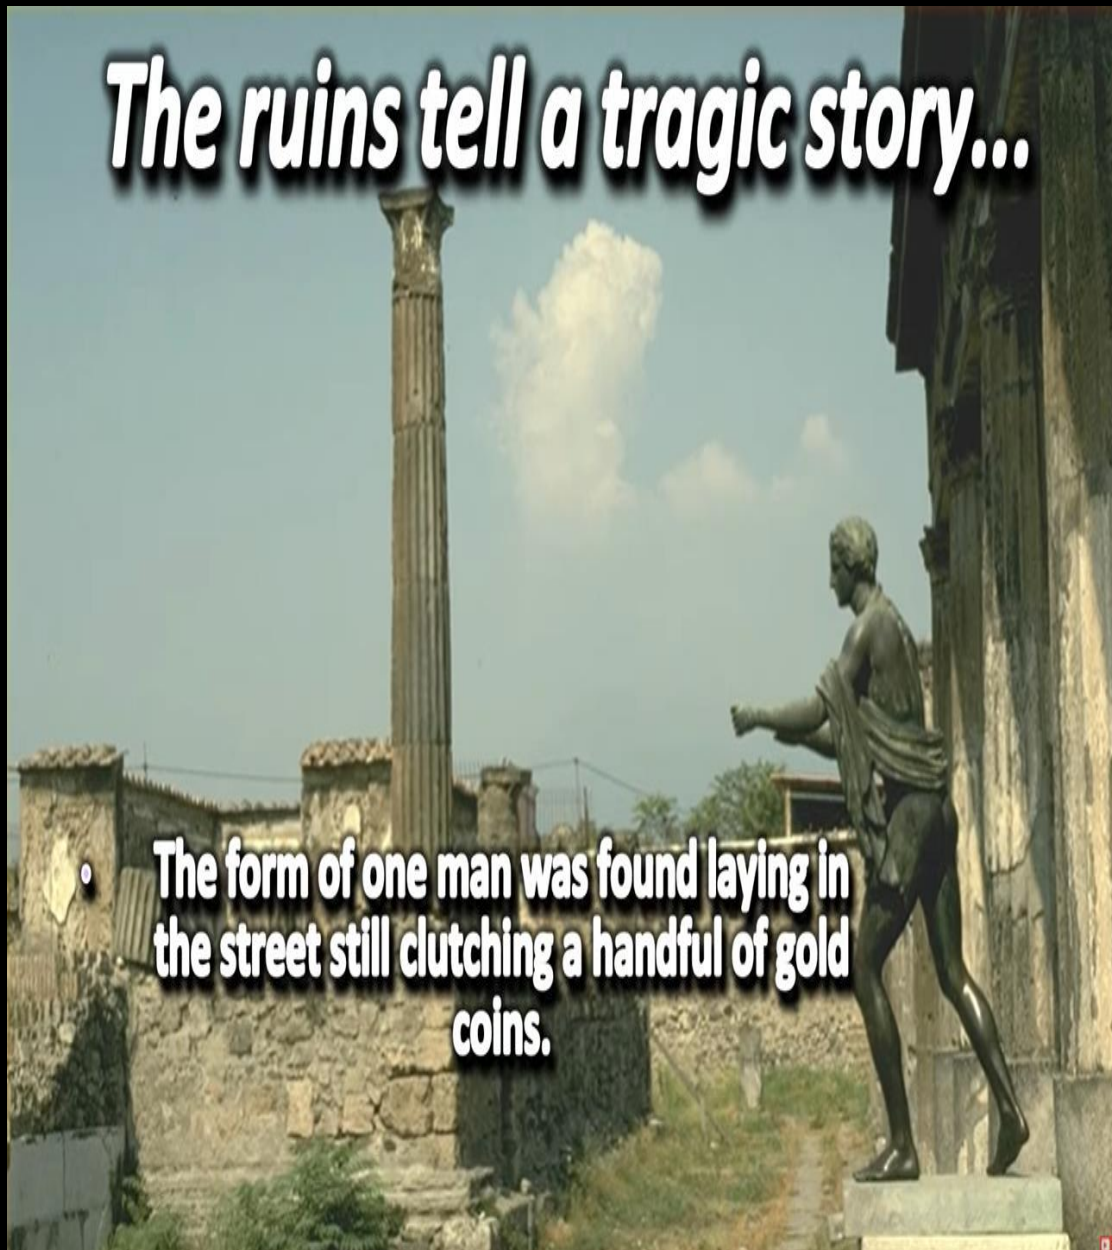

The ruins tell a tragic story...

- Burying valuables.
- Loading carts with possessions

The ruins tell a tragic story...

- The form of one man was found laying in the street still clutching a handful of gold coins.

It was an overwhelming surprise...

Victims breathed deadly sulfur fumes and dropped in their tracks, where a mixture of rain and ashes encircled their bodies like a cast.

Ready or Not Jesus is Coming!

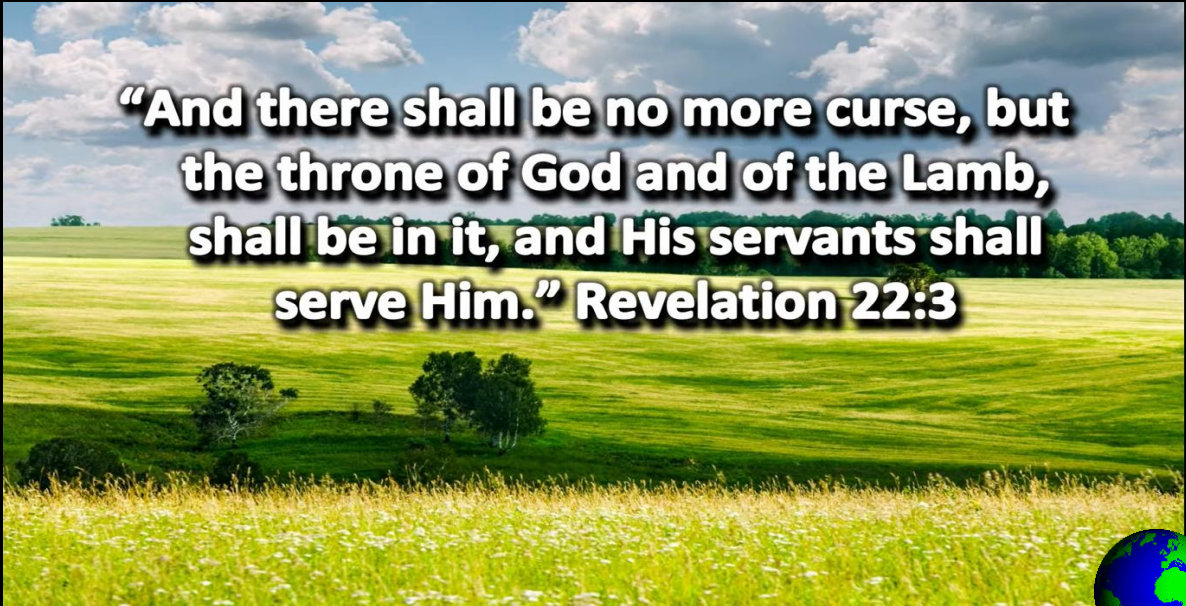

Why did Jesus die?

“who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.” Hebrews 12:2

Why did Jesus die for us?

“And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb, shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him.” Revelation 22:3

Jesus loves us so much that He

Jesus died on the Cross so that by accepting Him as Lord and Another Story in History to learn from...

Almost 100 miles downwind in Yakima, Washington, the sun went out at noon, leaving the city in total blackness for several hours.

Those who lived around Mount St. Helens had heard the warnings of an imminent eruption.

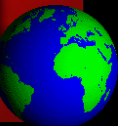

84 year-old Harry Truman, owner of the Mount St. Helens Lodge at the edge of Spirit Lake.

"No one knows more about this mountain than Harry, and it doesn't dare blow up on me."

FALSE SECURITY!

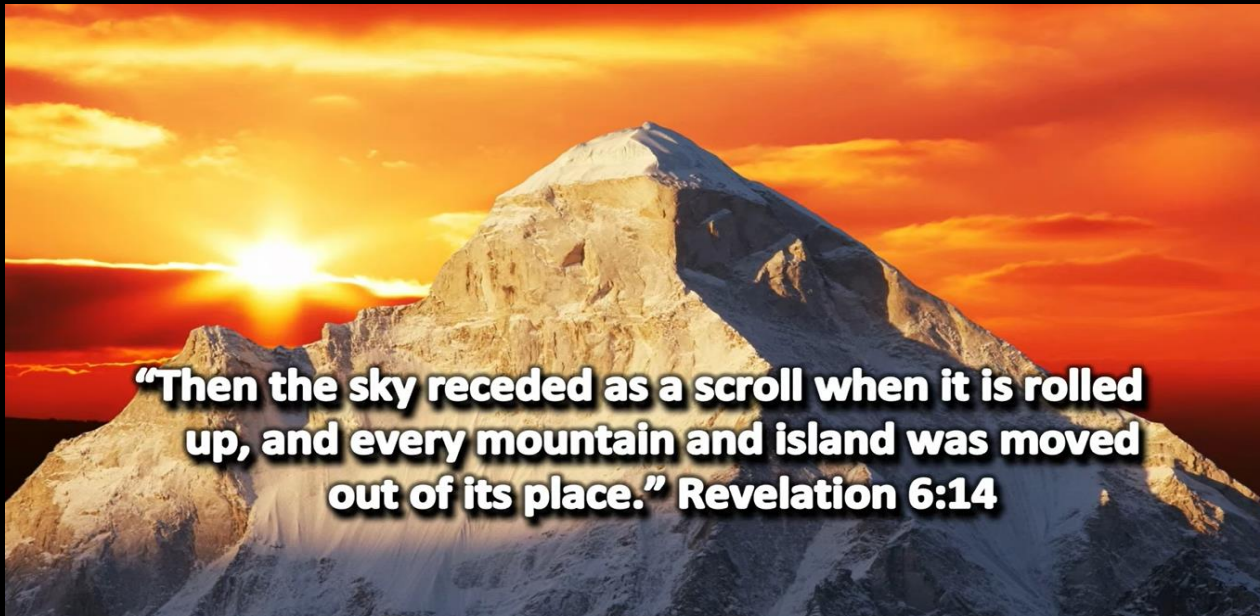

Harry was not ready!

Soon every mountain will

A sunset sky with a bright sun low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over a layer of clouds.

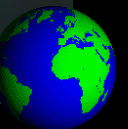

Our only “blessed hope” is the “glorious appearing” of Jesus Christ.

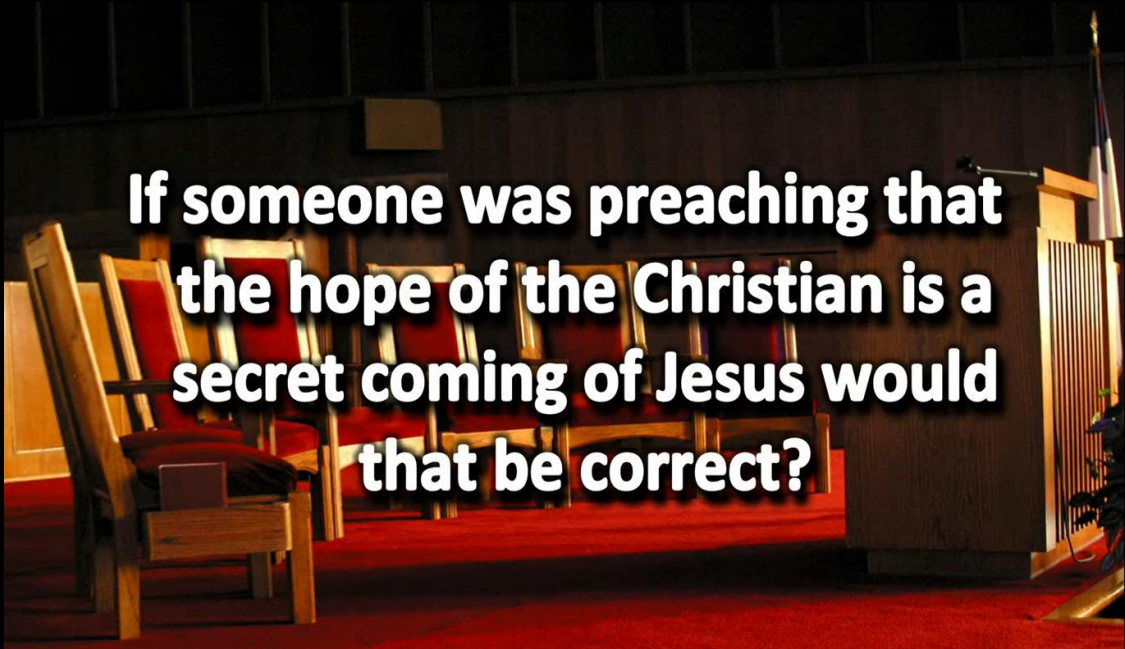

A sunset sky with a bright sun low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over a layer of clouds.

Is there HOPE for tomorrow?
“While we wait for the blessed hope--the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.” Titus 2:13.

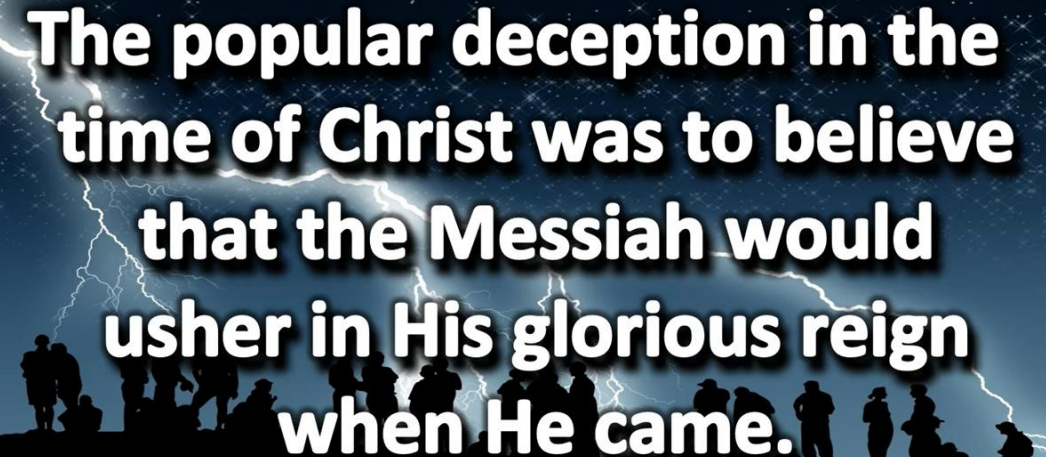

A clear blue sky with a few wispy white clouds.

Jesus appears = only hope
Jesus does not appear = false hope

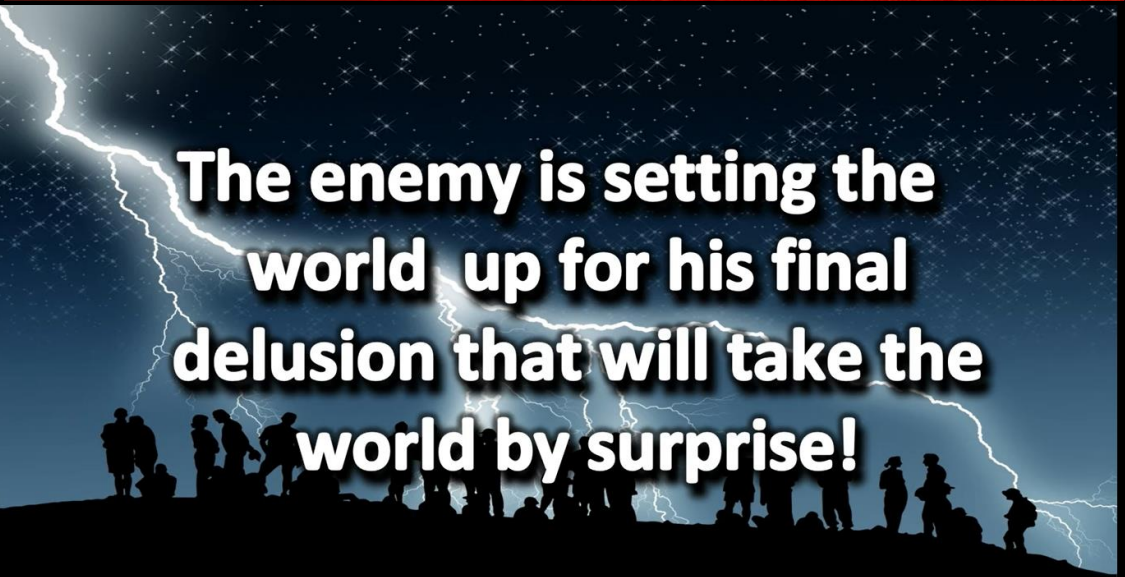

If someone was preaching that the hope of the Christian is a secret coming of Jesus would that be correct?

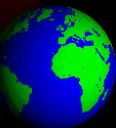

The popular deception in the time of Christ was to believe that the Messiah would usher in His glorious reign when He came.

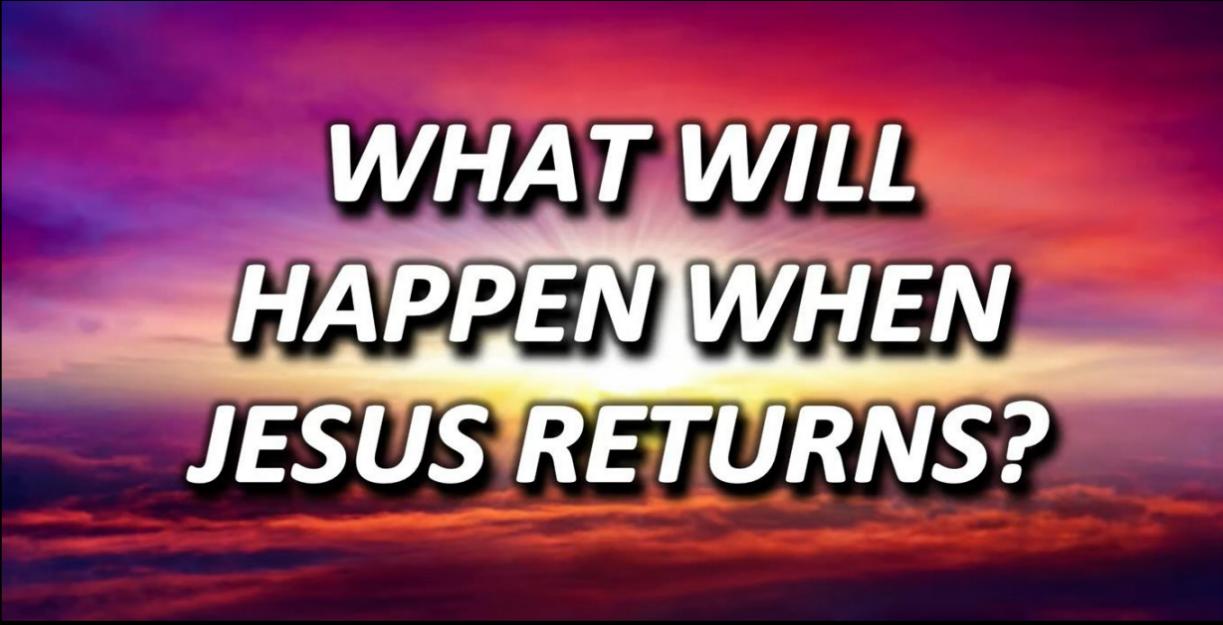

The enemy is setting the world up for his final delusion that will take the world by surprise!

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THE RIGHTEOUS WHEN JESUS COMES AGAIN?

QUESTION: WILL THE COMING OF JESUS BE

What is the most common text used to support a secret rapture?

1 Thessalonians 4:16,17

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

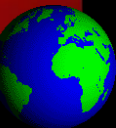

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

One of the noisiest verses in the Bible.

1 Corinthians 15:51-55

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

QUESTION:
WHAT DOES THE PHRASE
"THIEF IN THE NIGHT"
REFER TO?

- QUESTION:
- A. The secretive manner of His return.
 - B. The unexpected timing of His return.

1 But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

“...He will appear a second time, not to as; bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.” Hebrews 9:28

What about the expression “one shall be taken and the other left”?
Luke 17:26-37

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together. – Luke 17:26-37

The Final Separation...

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. — Matthew 25:1-13

Those who know, need to warn

Ezekiel 3:17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

“Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me:

God sends warnings because He loves us.

The Final book of the Bible

The book of Revelation is full of strong warnings to be given before Jesus comes again to take His faithful home to heaven.

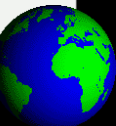

There are many warnings found in the book of Revelation. There are 22 chapters, 404 verses in this last book of the Bible. It has a lot of imagery and words of the Old Testament.

The warnings in Revelation

1. Warning about the Mark of the Beast
2. Warning about the Antichrist
3. Warning about the Seven Last Plagues
4. Warning about Hell Fire
5. Warning about the Harlots of Mystery Babylon
6. Warning about the Seven Seals
7. Warning about the Seventh Church
8. Warning about 666
9. Warning about the image to the beast
10. Warning about the Second Coming of Christ

God warns before He does...

And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. 2 Chronicles 36:15

God sends His loving warnings because He has compassion on sinners.

God's last message of Love

When it comes to preparing for eternity,
for the second coming of Jesus Christ, everything depends upon listening and obeying God's last messages of mercy.

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people—

God's last message of Love

⁷ saying with a loud voice, “Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water.” Revelation 14:6-7

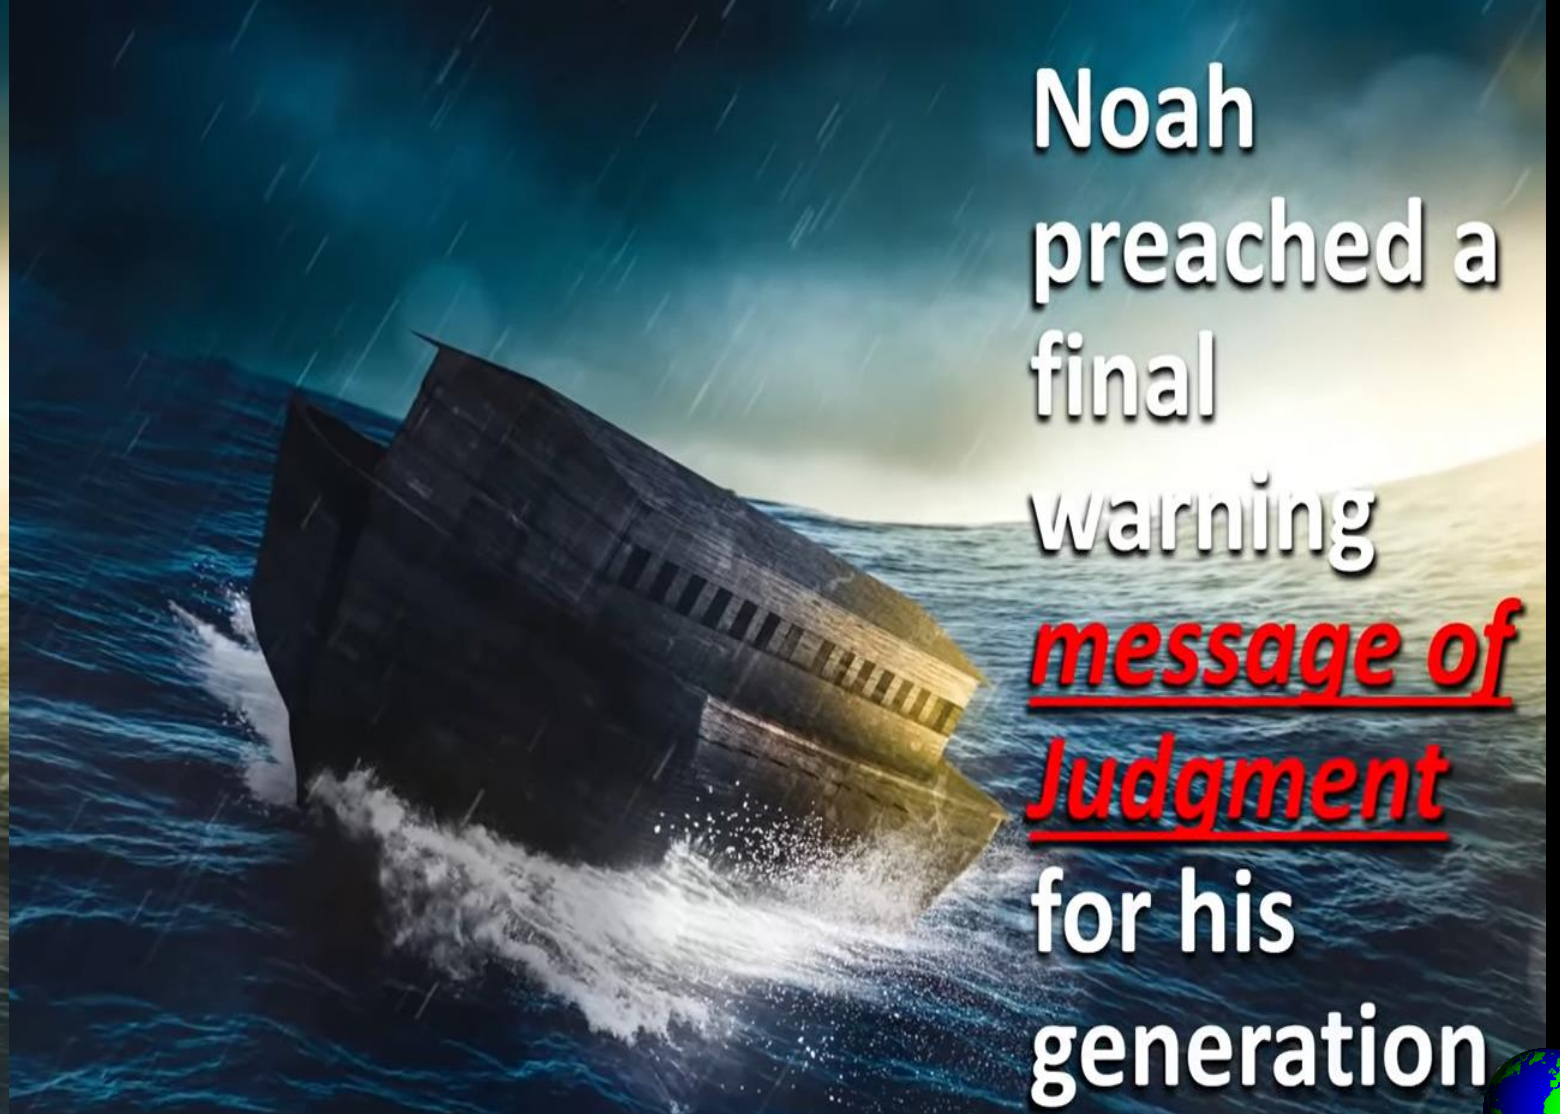

The seventh trumpet will begin to sound as the “hour of God’s judgment” begins!

History will repeat itself...

Almost everyone rejected God's final call to be saved from the flood. Only 8 people were saved. Jesus said our day is like the days of Noah.

Most will reject the warnings.

Noah preached a final warning message of Judgment for his generation

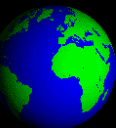

Probation closes in the days of Noah

It was determined who would be saved and who would be lost in the days of Noah before the flood.

Seven days before the flood came, Noah and his family entered the Ark and the massive heavy door was closed never to be opened to the wicked.

God gives a long rope, so to say...

Noah preached the final warning of judgment to his generation for 120
years.

Soon time will run out for humanity...

Even though that seems time in the last days we have been in a time of judgment for more than 120 years.

Soon the door to the heavenly sanctuary is going to close. The door of salvation is about to close.

Most reject Bible prophecy...

Most people down through history and with our generation being no exception, have resisted and rejected God's warnings.

Jesus said that no one can know what day will be the second coming, but we can know when the judgment would begin sometime before the second coming.

Where are we in Bible Prophecy?

In Revelation there are four groups of events numbered by seven—the seven churches, the seven seals, the seven trumpets, and finally, the seven last plagues,

ARE WE LIVING IN THE
TIME OF THE SEVENTH TRUMPET OF REVELATION?

7 Last plagues fall just before Jesus comes which—like the plagues that fell on ancient Egypt just before the Israelites were freed from their slavery—will fall on this earth just before God's people are delivered by Jesus at His second coming.

In the next few minutes we're going to look at the seventh trumpet in the book of Revelation, and see if we can learn if in fact we are living during the time when this trumpet is sounding. Let's turn to Revelation chapter 11:

The seventh trumpet sounds...

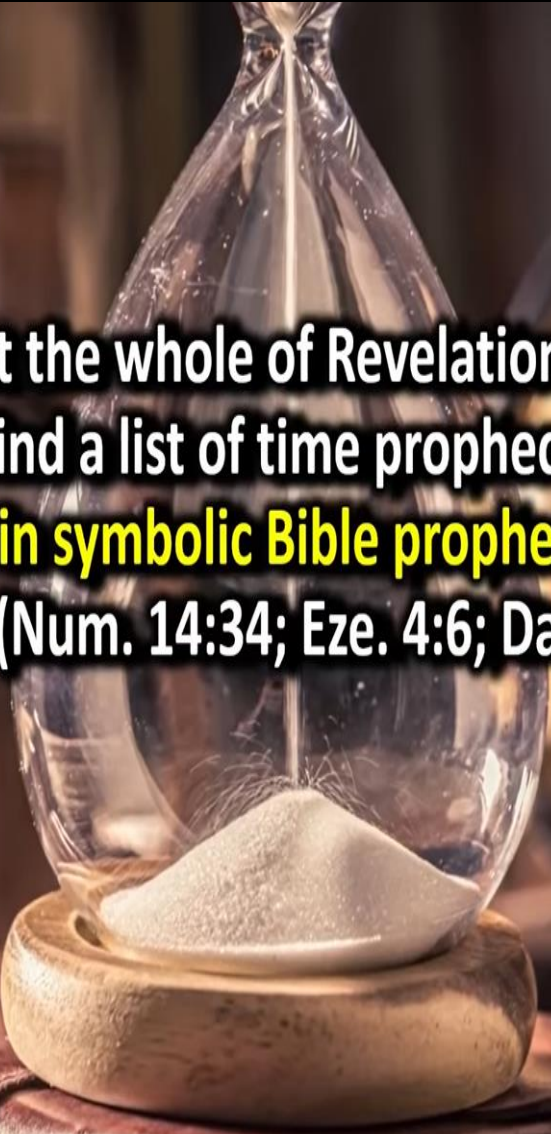

Then the seventh angel sounded. And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever” (verse 15).

So what is clear is that when the seventh angel blows his trumpet, it's time for the kingdoms of this world to become the kingdoms of Jesus. That means that when this trumpet blasts its warning, Jesus is about to come back!

Revelation 11 gives us details...

When we look at the whole of Revelation chapter 11, we find a list of time prophecies. Remember that in symbolic Bible prophecy, days represent years (Num. 14:34; Eze. 4:6; Dan. 9:24-27).

So in Revelation 11, when we read of God's two witnesses prophesying in sackcloth for 1,260 days (verse 3), this refers to the period of the Dark Ages, when God's people were persecuted and the Bible was hid from most of the public.

Revelation 11 gives us details (cont'd)...

But then we read of how these same two witnesses—which the evidence of Scripture identifies as the Old and New Testaments—were killed and left for dead for three and a half days (Rev. 11:9).

This happened during the French Revolution, when the Bible and the worship of God were banned for three and a half years—from November of 1793 to July of 1797.

Revelation 11 gives us details (cont'd)...

This prophecy was fulfilled in the years following the French Revolution, when Bible societies and great spiritual revivals spread across the world.

Revelation 11 gives us details (cont'd)...

Moving into the later verses of Revelation 11, we read of how the time for God's final judgment has arrived, beginning with the righteous dead (verse 18).

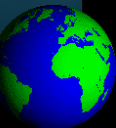

The opening of this judgment is announced in Revelation 11:19:
Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple.

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

Daniel 7 tells us how, after the little horn power persecutes God's people for 1,260 years (Dan. 7:8,25),

God's judgment will sit, heaven's books will be opened (verses 9-14), and God's people will be delivered (Dan. 7:26-27; 12:1).

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

This is the judgment being described in Revelation 11:18-19, whose beginning is heralded by the sounding of the seventh trumpet (Rev. 11:15).

In Daniel 7:13-14, we read of how, in this final judgment, the Son of Man—Jesus—receives His eternal kingdom. Listen to how Daniel describes this glorious scene:

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

I was watching in the night visions. And behold, One like the Son of Man, coming with the clouds of heaven! He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.

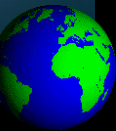

Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom the one which shall not be destroyed.

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

In other words, Christ is receiving His kingdom during the proceedings of the final judgment in heaven, when His people's cases are examined, and those found to be faithful are sealed and saved at last (Dan. 12:1; Rev. 3:5).

Jesus is finishing His High Priestly work in the heavenly sanctuary and this is called a time of "judgement." Jesus is not only our Great High Priest but He is also our Judge.

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

The timing of this judgment is clarified in Daniel chapter 8, verse 14, which—like the judgment scene in Daniel 7—is positioned immediately after the work of the little horn against God's people. Daniel 8:14 tell us:

Unto two thousand and three hundred days, then shall the sanctuary be cleansed (KJV).

Daniel 7 reveals Revelation 11

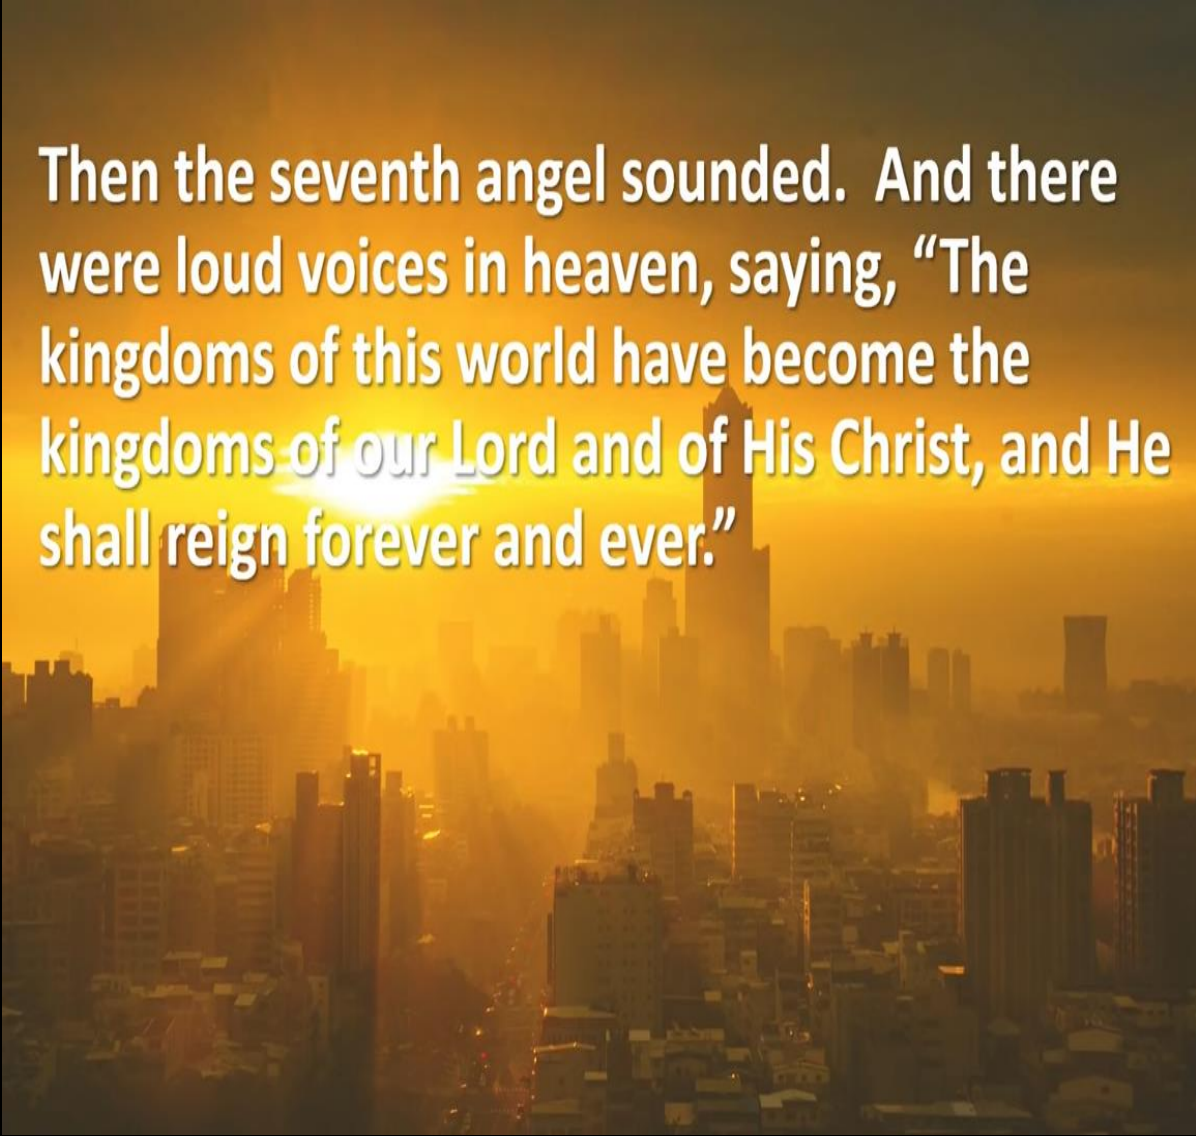

It ends in the year 1844, when the judgment of the righteous dead begins (Rev. 11:18) and the Most Holy Place of the heavenly temple is opened (verse 19).

Notice how the language of Daniel 7:13-14, where Christ receives His kingdom, is repeated in the language of Revelation 11:15:

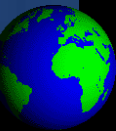

The 7th Trumpet sounded...

Then the seventh angel sounded. And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever."

So yes, since the year 1844 we have in fact been living in the time of the seventh trumpet.

Summary

Like peals of thunder this angel is announcing that God's judgment has begun, that His people are being examined for faithfulness, and that—like the children of Israel on the ancient Day of Atonement—we are to have our hearts and lives cleansed of sin just as the sanctuary in heaven is being cleansed of the record of those sins.

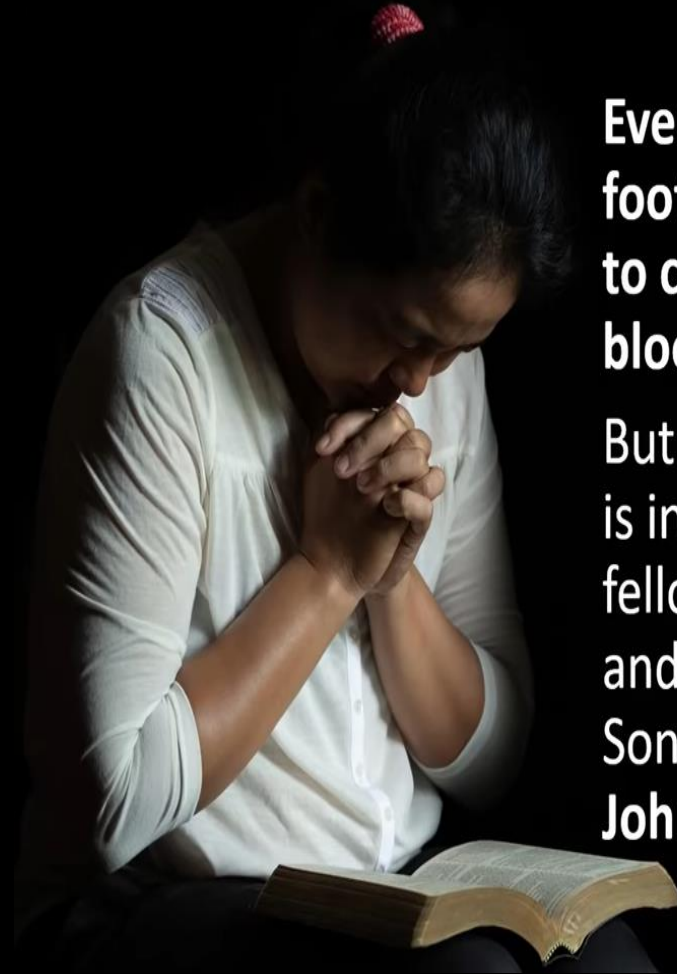

Conclusion

Psalms 51:1-2,7,10

Have mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
Blot out my transgressions. Vs. 1,2

²Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin. Vs. 7

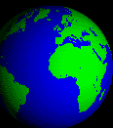

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Vs. 10

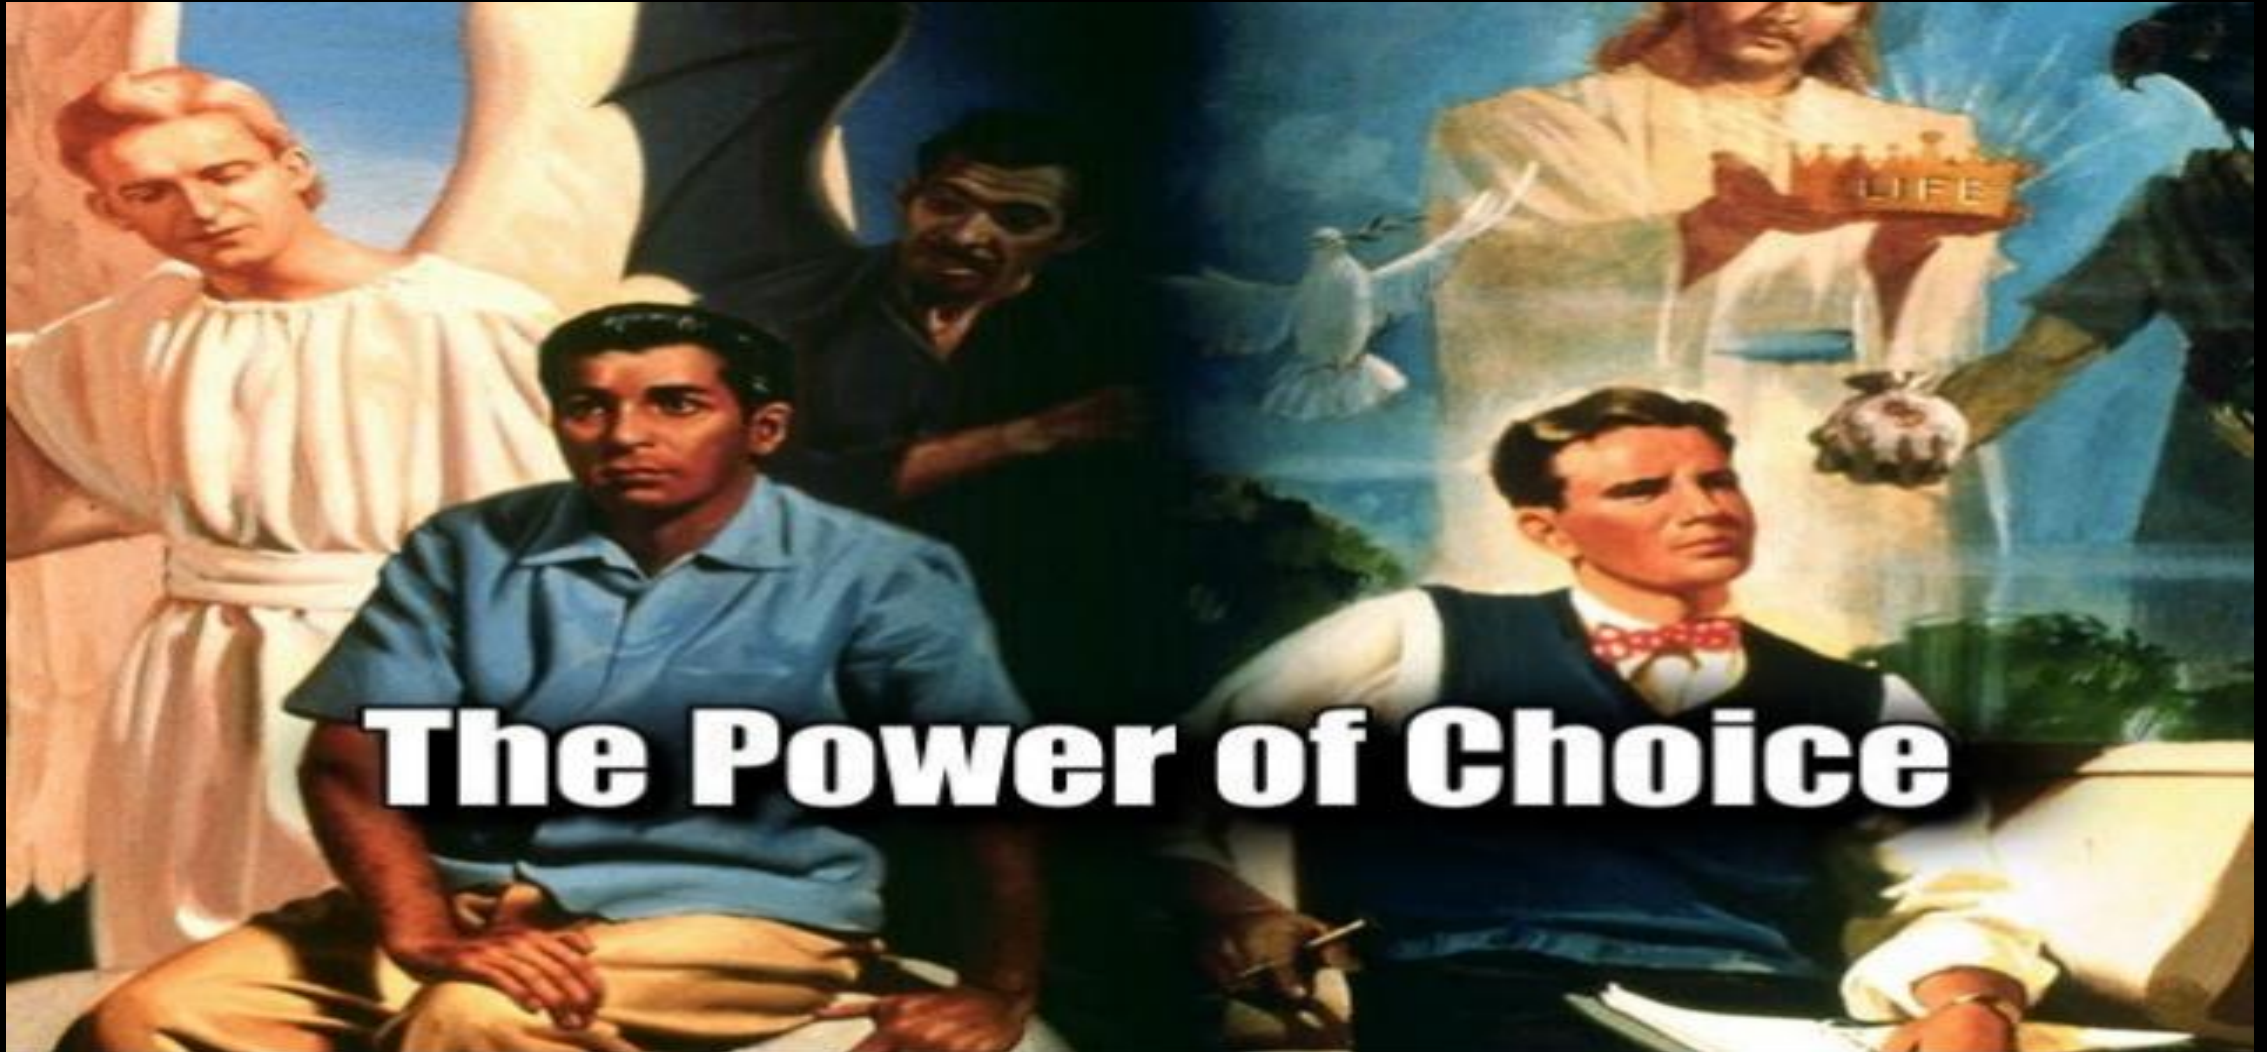

Every day we want to go to the foot of the Cross and ask Jesus to cleanse us by His precious blood and believe that He does.

But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 1

John 1:7

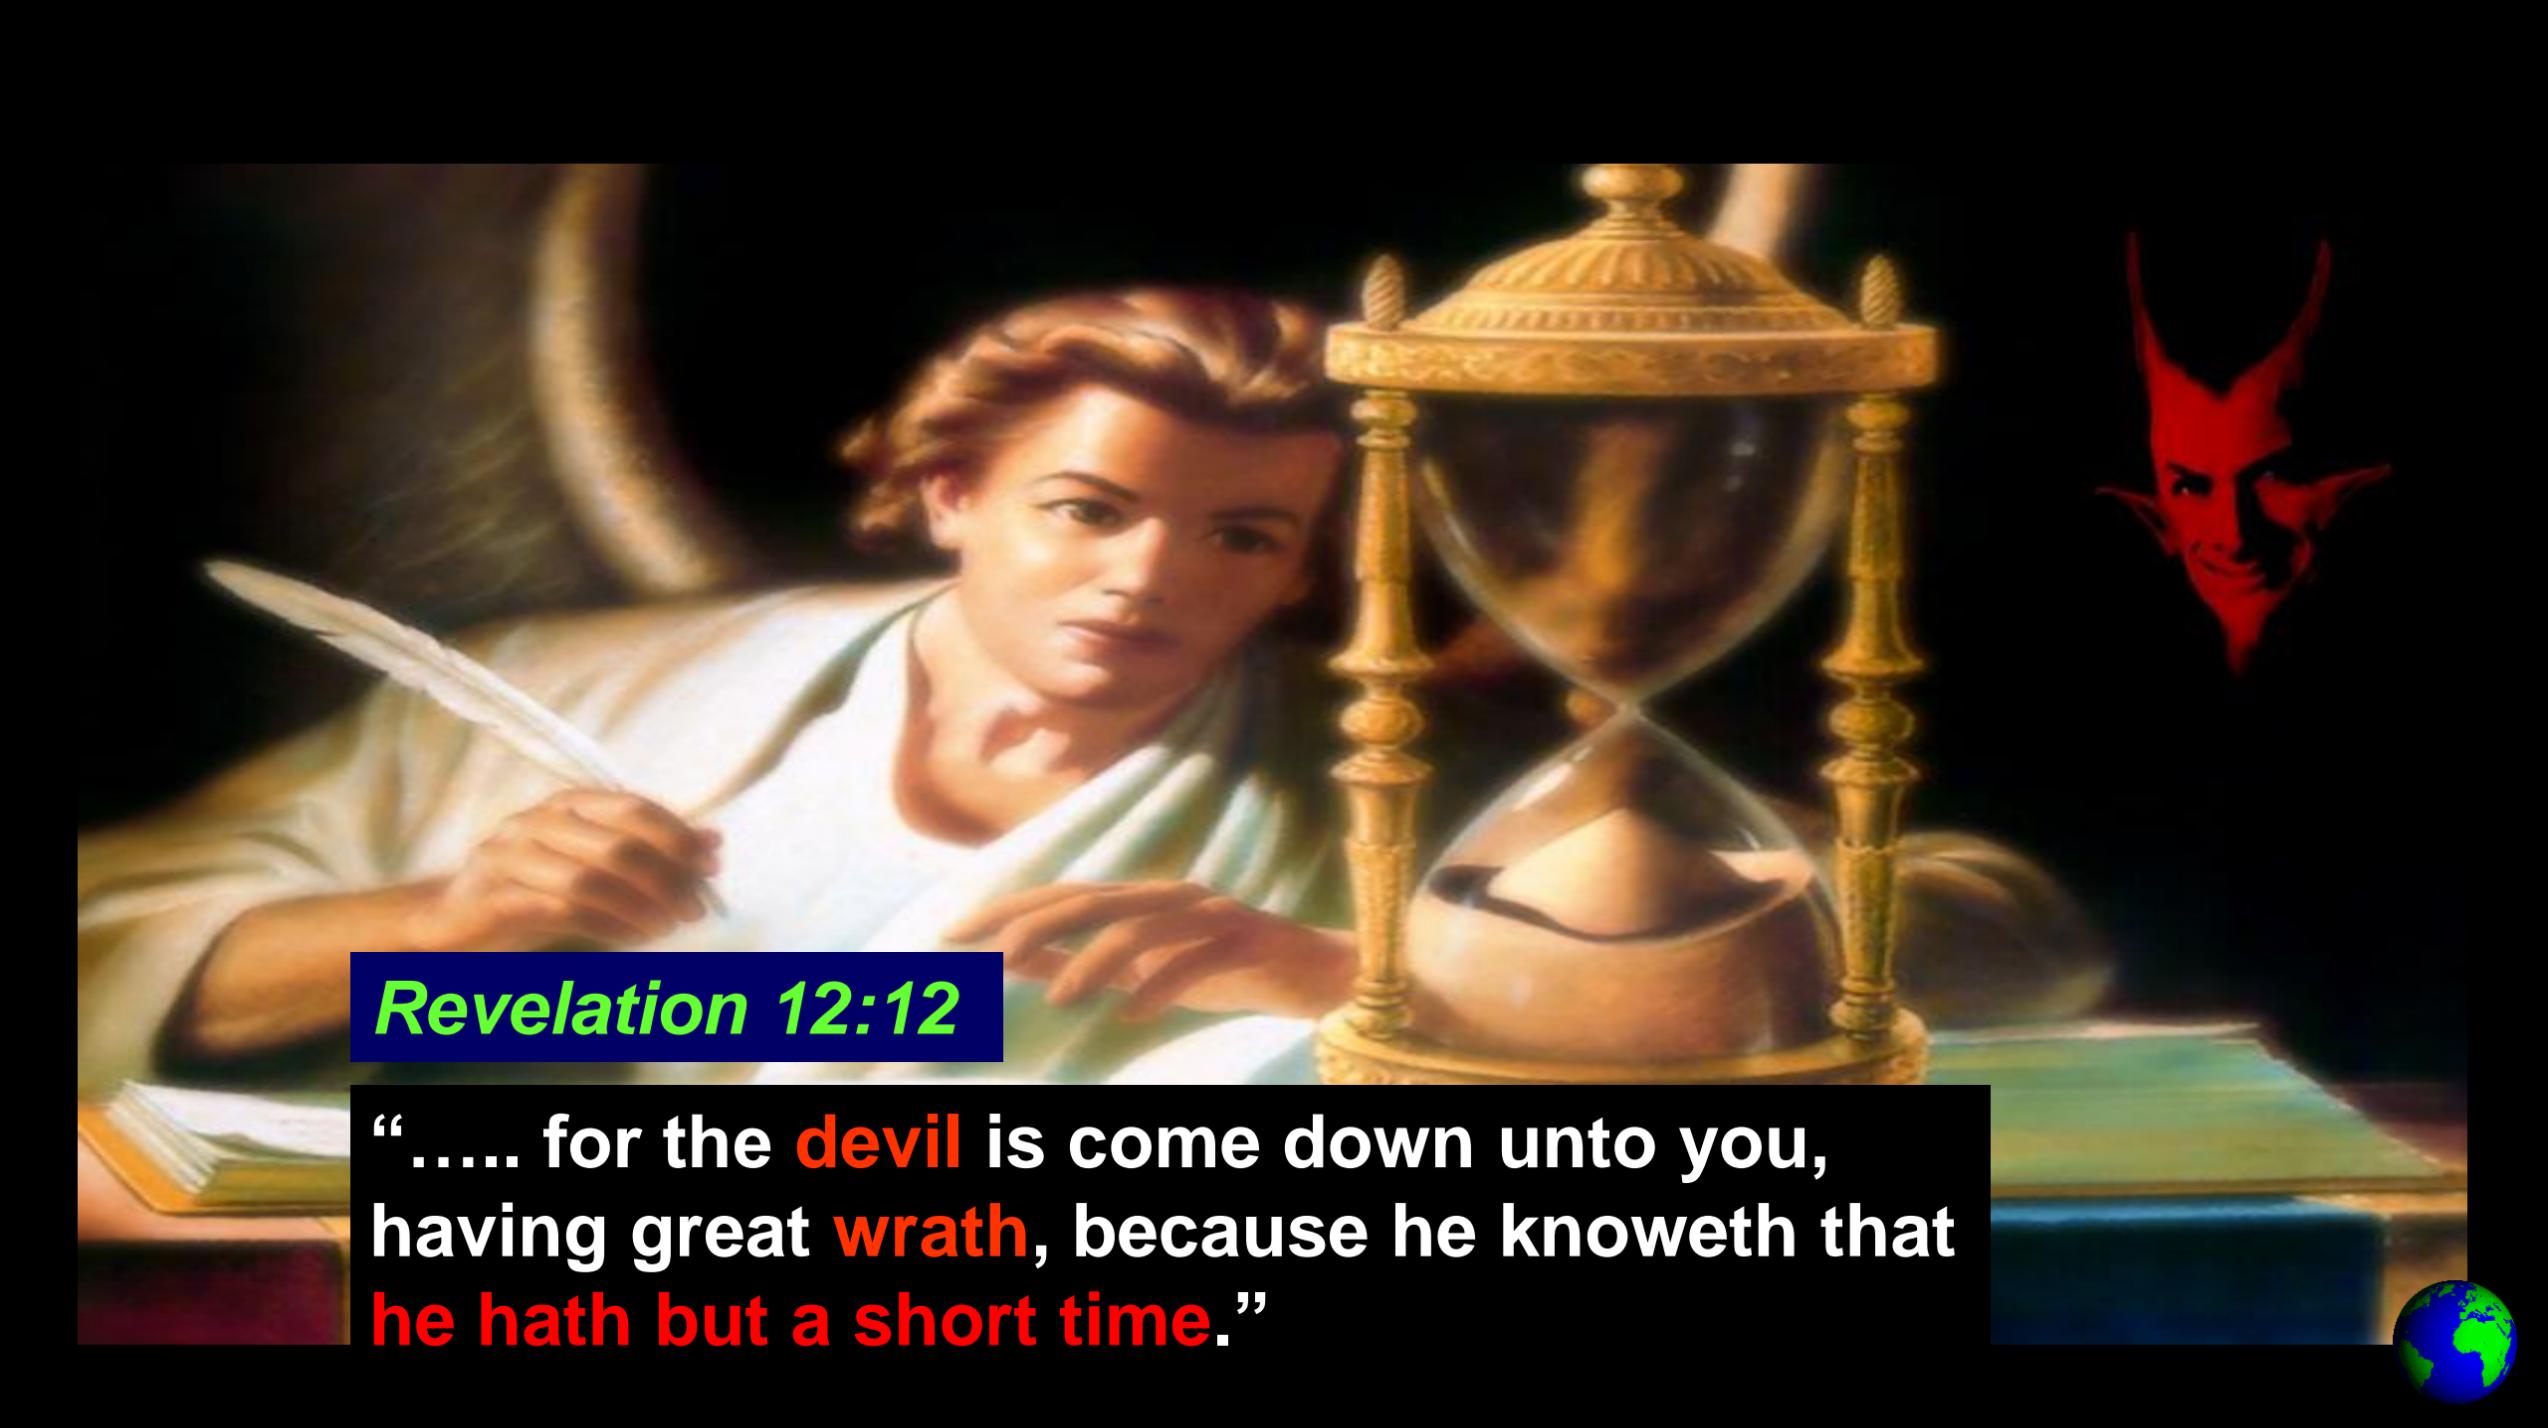

God has given all:

The Power of Choice

An angel with a halo is shown writing on a scroll with a quill. Next to the angel is a large, ornate hourglass. In the background, a red devil's face with horns is visible. The scene is set in a dark, dramatic environment.

Revelation 12:12

“..... for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

Enter The Ark of Hope

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

The Ark of the Covenant

Psalms 77:13

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. –
