Can We Trust Bible Prophecy?

Yes, we Can!

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

2 Peter 3:9 KJV

2 Peter - Jesus & Remnant:

Safeguard against heresy, apostasy & Complacency

Past > Present > Future

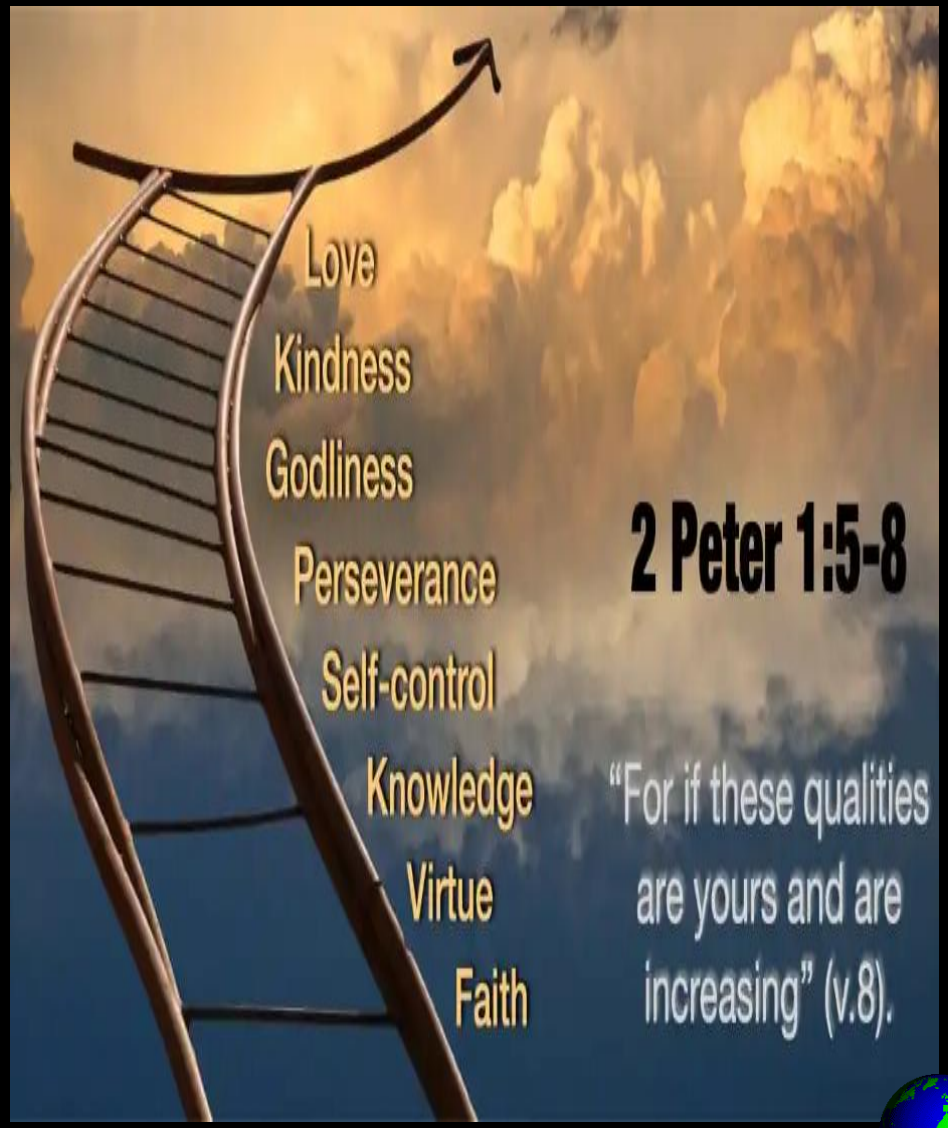

Introduction

1. Spiritual Growth and Moral Excellence (Chapter 1)

Partaking of the Divine Nature: Believers are granted "exceeding great and precious promises" so they might escape worldly corruption and reflect God's character (2 Peter 1:4).

Diligence in Virtues: Christians are urged to add to their faith: virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and charity/love (2 Peter 1:5–7).

Eyewitness Authority: Peter anchors his message in his own eyewitness testimony of Jesus Christ's majesty, such as the Transfiguration, and the divine inspiration of scripture.

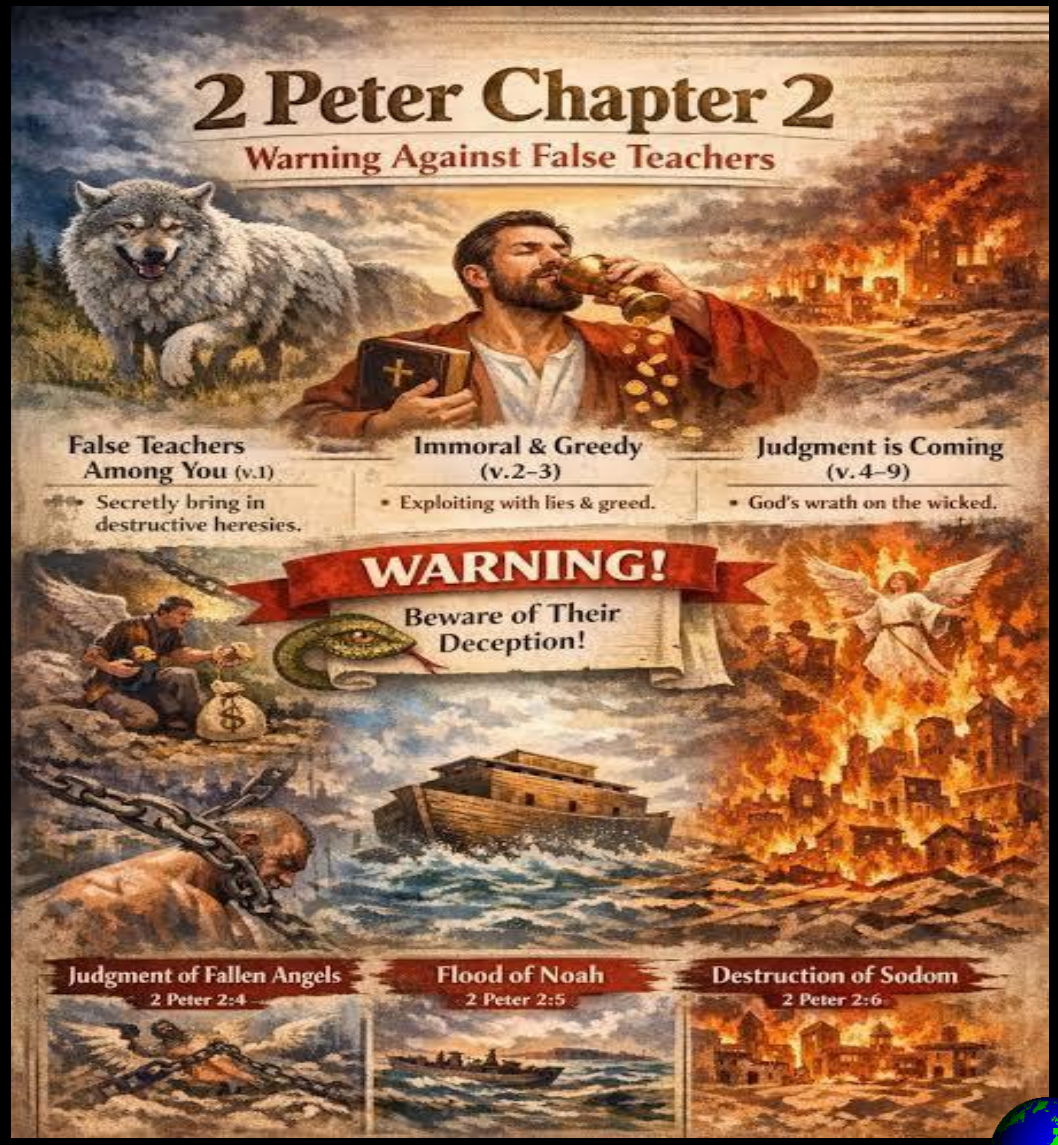

Introduction

2. Warning Against False Teachers (Chapter 2)

Destructive Heresies: Peter strongly warns the church against corrupt teachers who secretly bring in destructive heresies, deny the Lord, and exploit believers with greedy, immoral lifestyles (2 Peter 2:1–3).

Historical Precedents of Judgment: He reminds readers that God is a moral judge who punished rebellious angels, the ungodly world in Noah's flood, and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, while delivering the righteous (2 Peter 2:4–9).

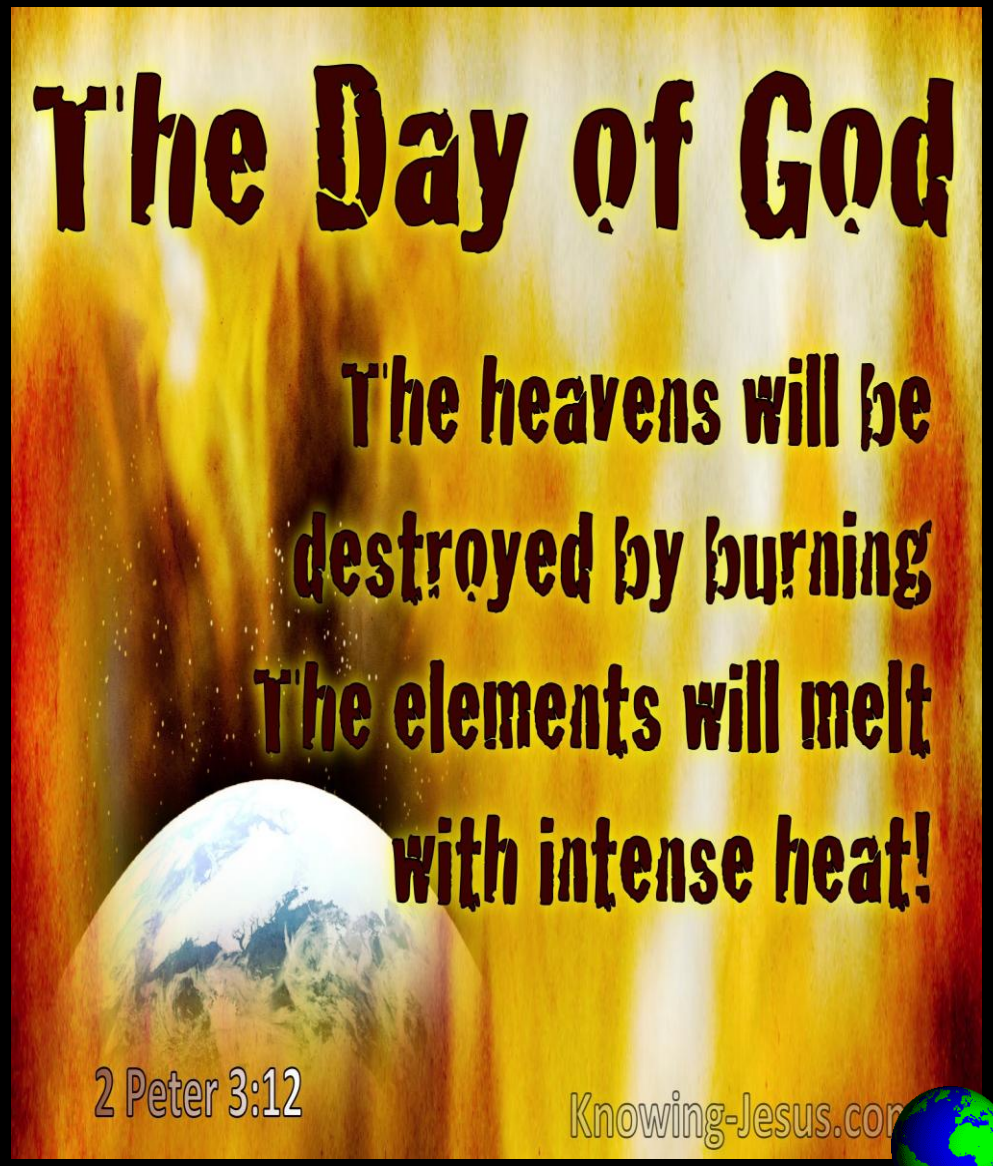

Introduction

3. The Second Coming and the Day of the Lord (Chapter 3)

Scoffers and Christ's Return: Peter addresses mockers who question Jesus's promised return because time has passed.

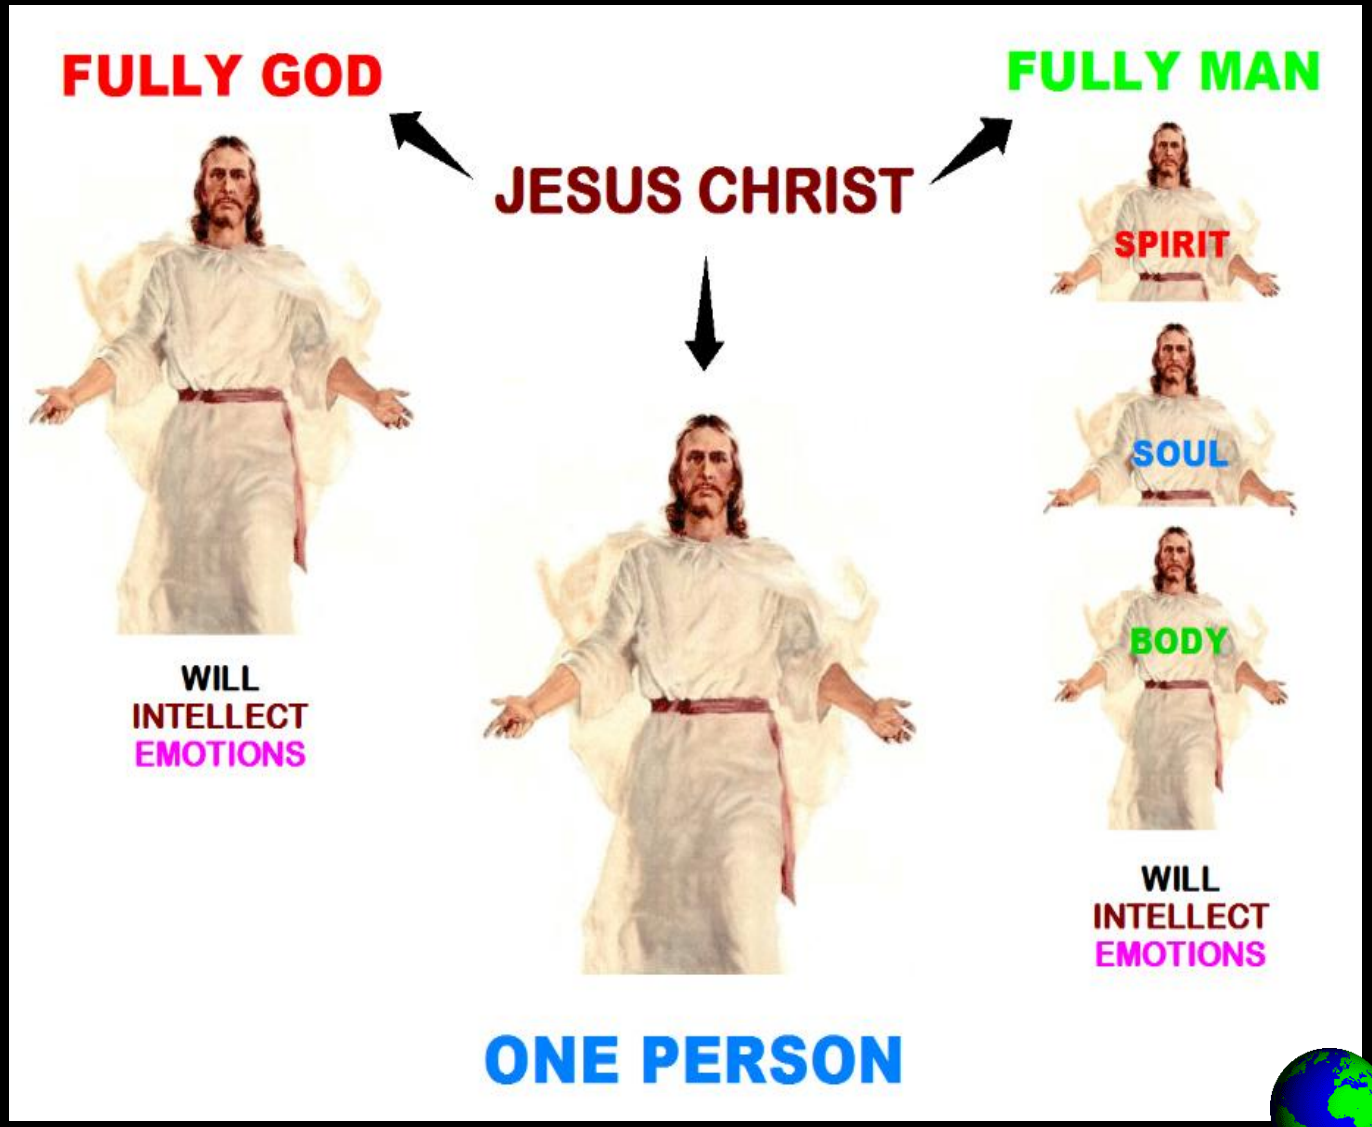

God's Patience: He explains that the delay is not slowness, but divine patience—giving people time to repent rather than perishing (2 Peter 3:9).

The Day of the Lord: The letter describes the coming Day of the Lord, when the heavens and earth will be dissolved with fervent heat, leading to the promise of "new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (2 Peter 3:10–13).

4. The Destination: The New Heavens and New Earth (2 Peter 3:13)

3 - Lessons in the book of 2 Peter

1. Spiritual Growth through the "Plan of Addition“:

Partakers of Divine Nature (2 Peter 1:4): Believers must escape the moral corruption of the world by claiming God's "exceeding great and precious promises" to be transformed into His likeness.

Peter's Ladder of Sanctification (2 Peter 1:5-7): Adventists view this text as a sequential template for spiritual maturity. True sanctification requires adding to faith: virtue, knowledge, temperance (self-control), patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and charity.

Securing the Calling (2 Peter 1:10): By climbing this spiritual ladder, the remnant "make [their] calling and election sure", ensuring they will never fall away under pressure.

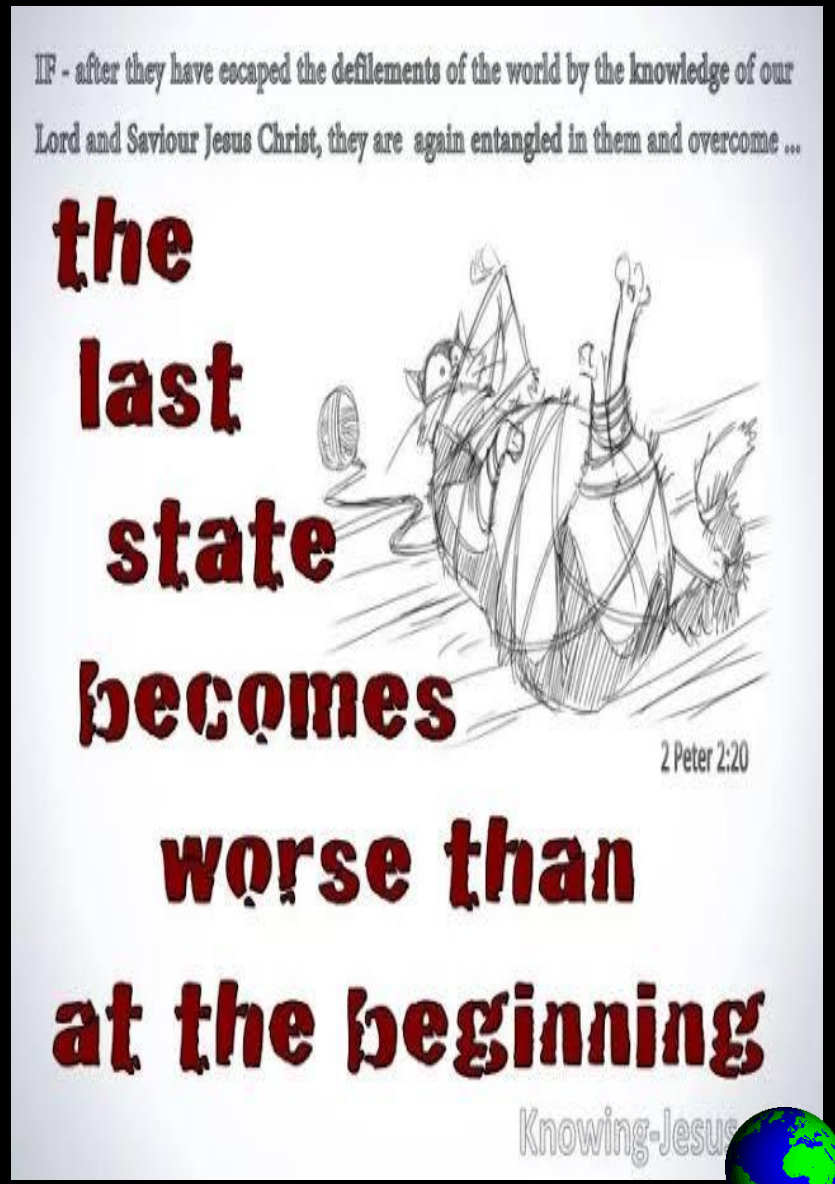

3 - Lessons in the book of 2 Peter

2. Total Reliance on the "More Sure Word of Prophecy“:

The Antidote to "Cunningly Devised Fables" (2 Peter 1:16): The remnant's faith does not rely on human philosophies or modern trends, but on the solid reality of Christ's power and impending return.

Prophetic Guidance (2 Peter 1:19): "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place." The remnant must treat biblical prophecy—including the fulfillment of end-time timelines—as an infallible roadmap.

Divine Inspiration (2 Peter 1:21): Scripture is not subject to "private interpretation"; it was written as "holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

3 - Lessons in the book of 2 Peter

3. Exposing and Rejecting False Teachers:

Internal Apostasy (2 Peter 2:1-2): Peter warns that false teachers will bring in "damnable heresies" from within the church flock.

Characteristics of Deceivers (2 Peter 2:10-19): These teachers are marked by a disregard for God's divine authority, lawlessness (turning grace into an excuse for sin), and covetousness.

A Reminder of Judgment (2 Peter 2:4-9): God provides historical examples—the fallen angels, the antediluvian world during Noah's time, and Sodom and Gomorrah—to prove that while He will execute swift judgment on the ungodly, He intimately "knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations".

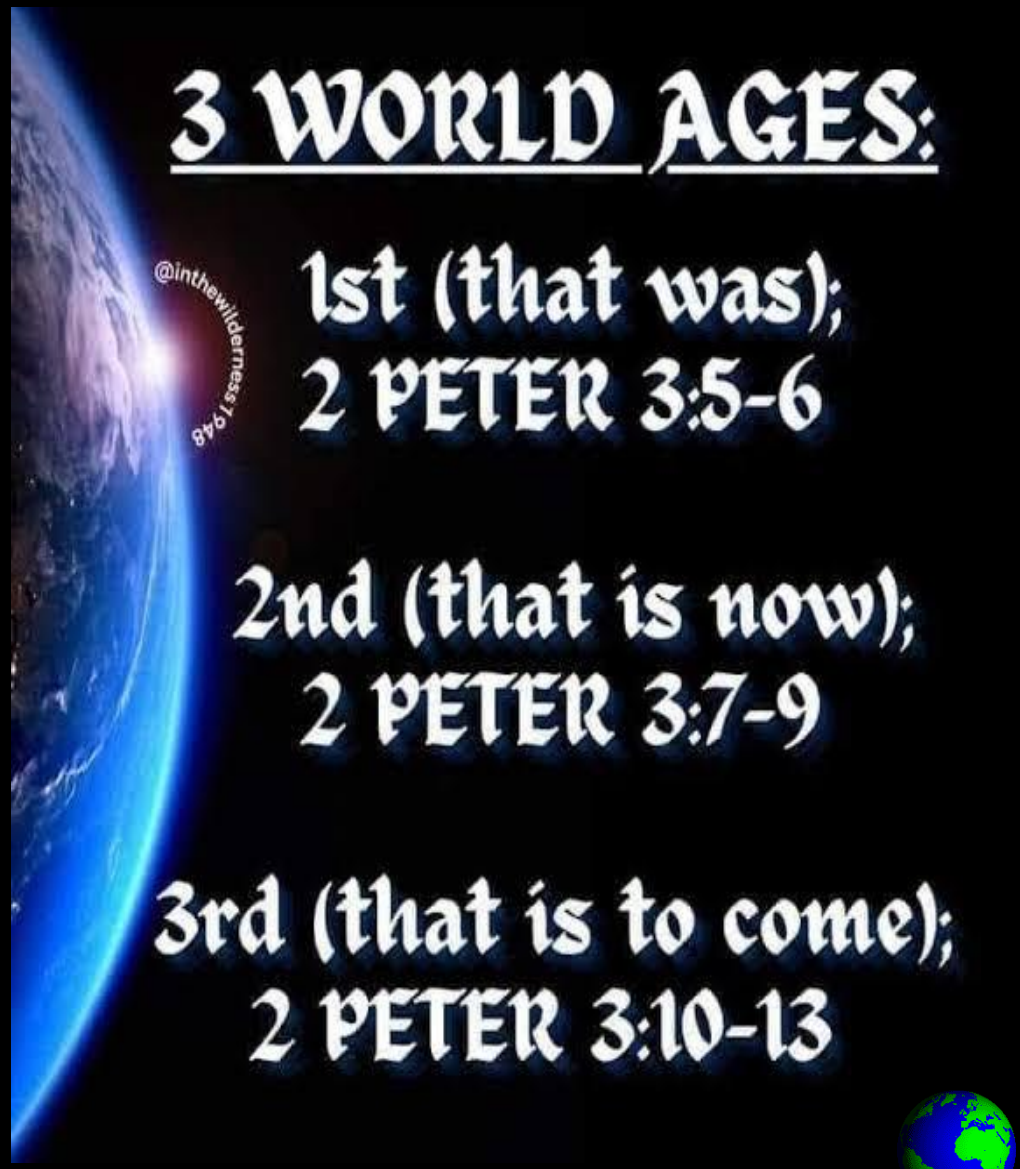

3 - Lessons in the book of 2 Peter

4. Answering Last-Day "Scoffers“:

Skepticism of Uniformitarianism (2 Peter 3:3-4): Scoffers walking after their own lusts will ask, "Where is the promise of his coming?" claiming that everything continues exactly as it has since creation.

The Reality of Global Judgments (2 Peter 3:5-6): Peter points out that scoffers are "willingly ignorant" of the global Flood—proving that God does break into human history to judge sin.

Understanding Divine Delay (2 Peter 3:9): The remnant must view the passing of time not as a failure of God’s promise, but as an extension of His mercy. He is "longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish".

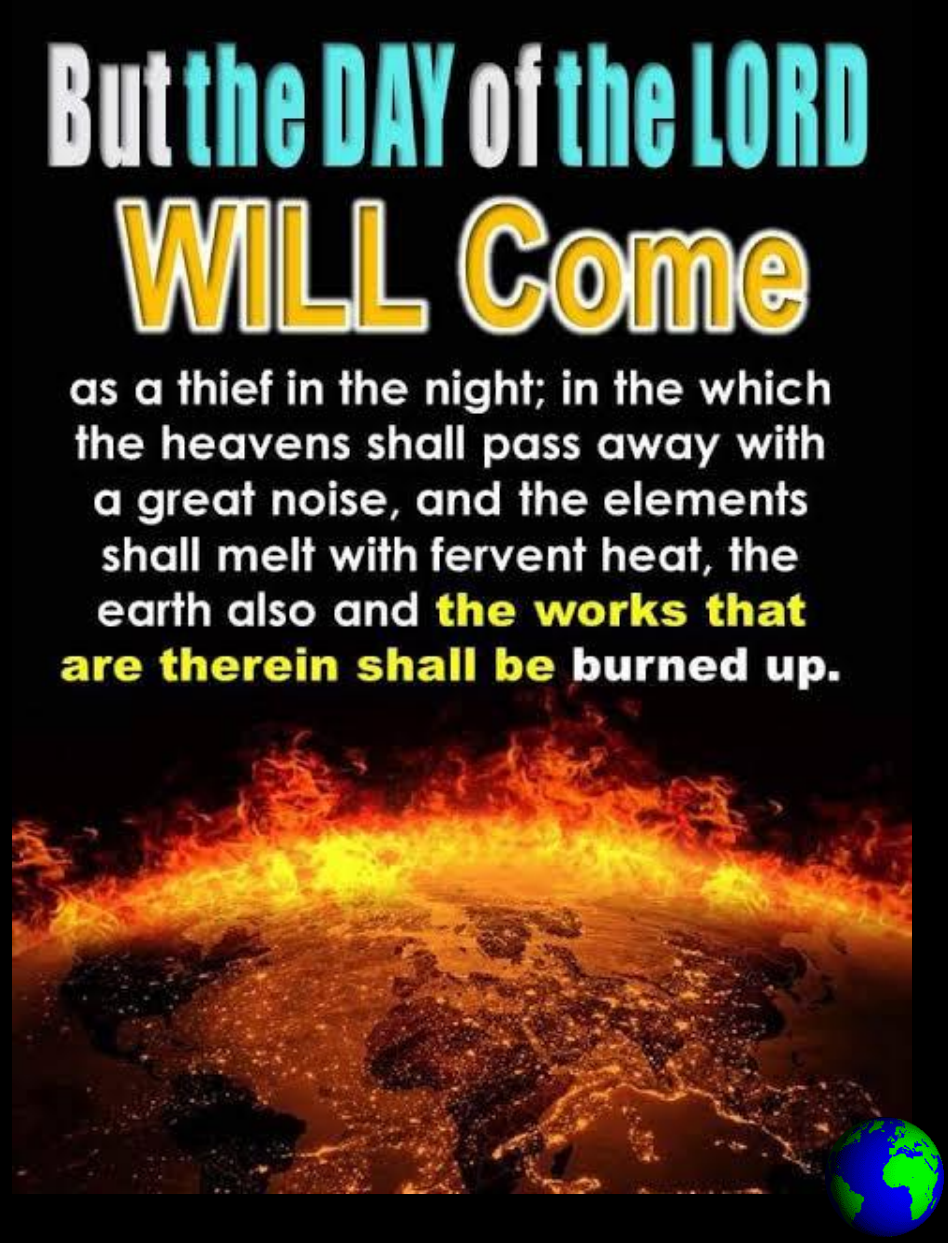

Conclusion

5. Hasting the Day through Holy Living:

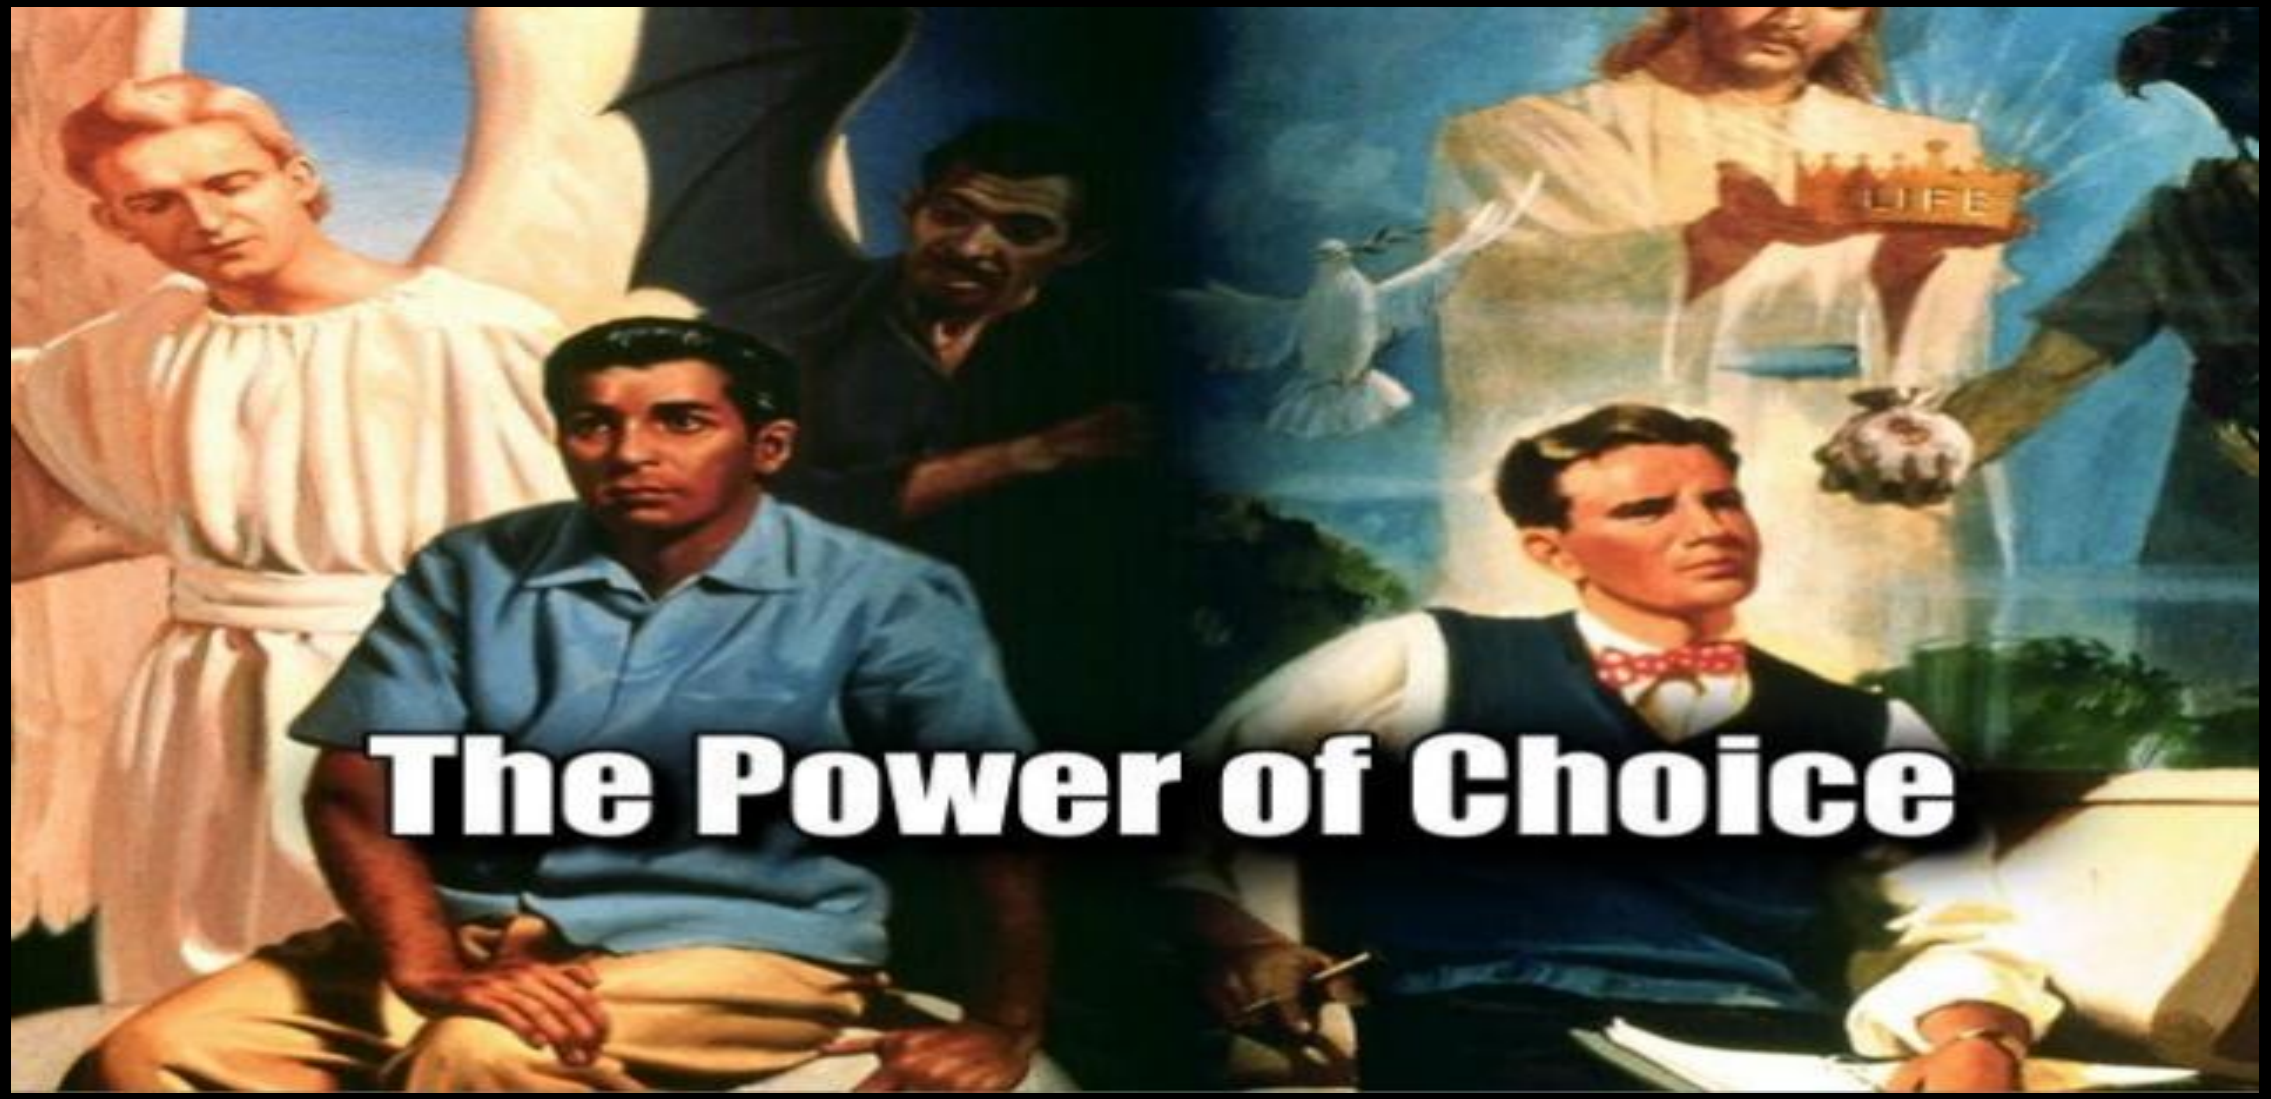

The Dissolution of the Earth (2 Peter 3:10): The "day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night," in which the elements will melt with fervent heat.

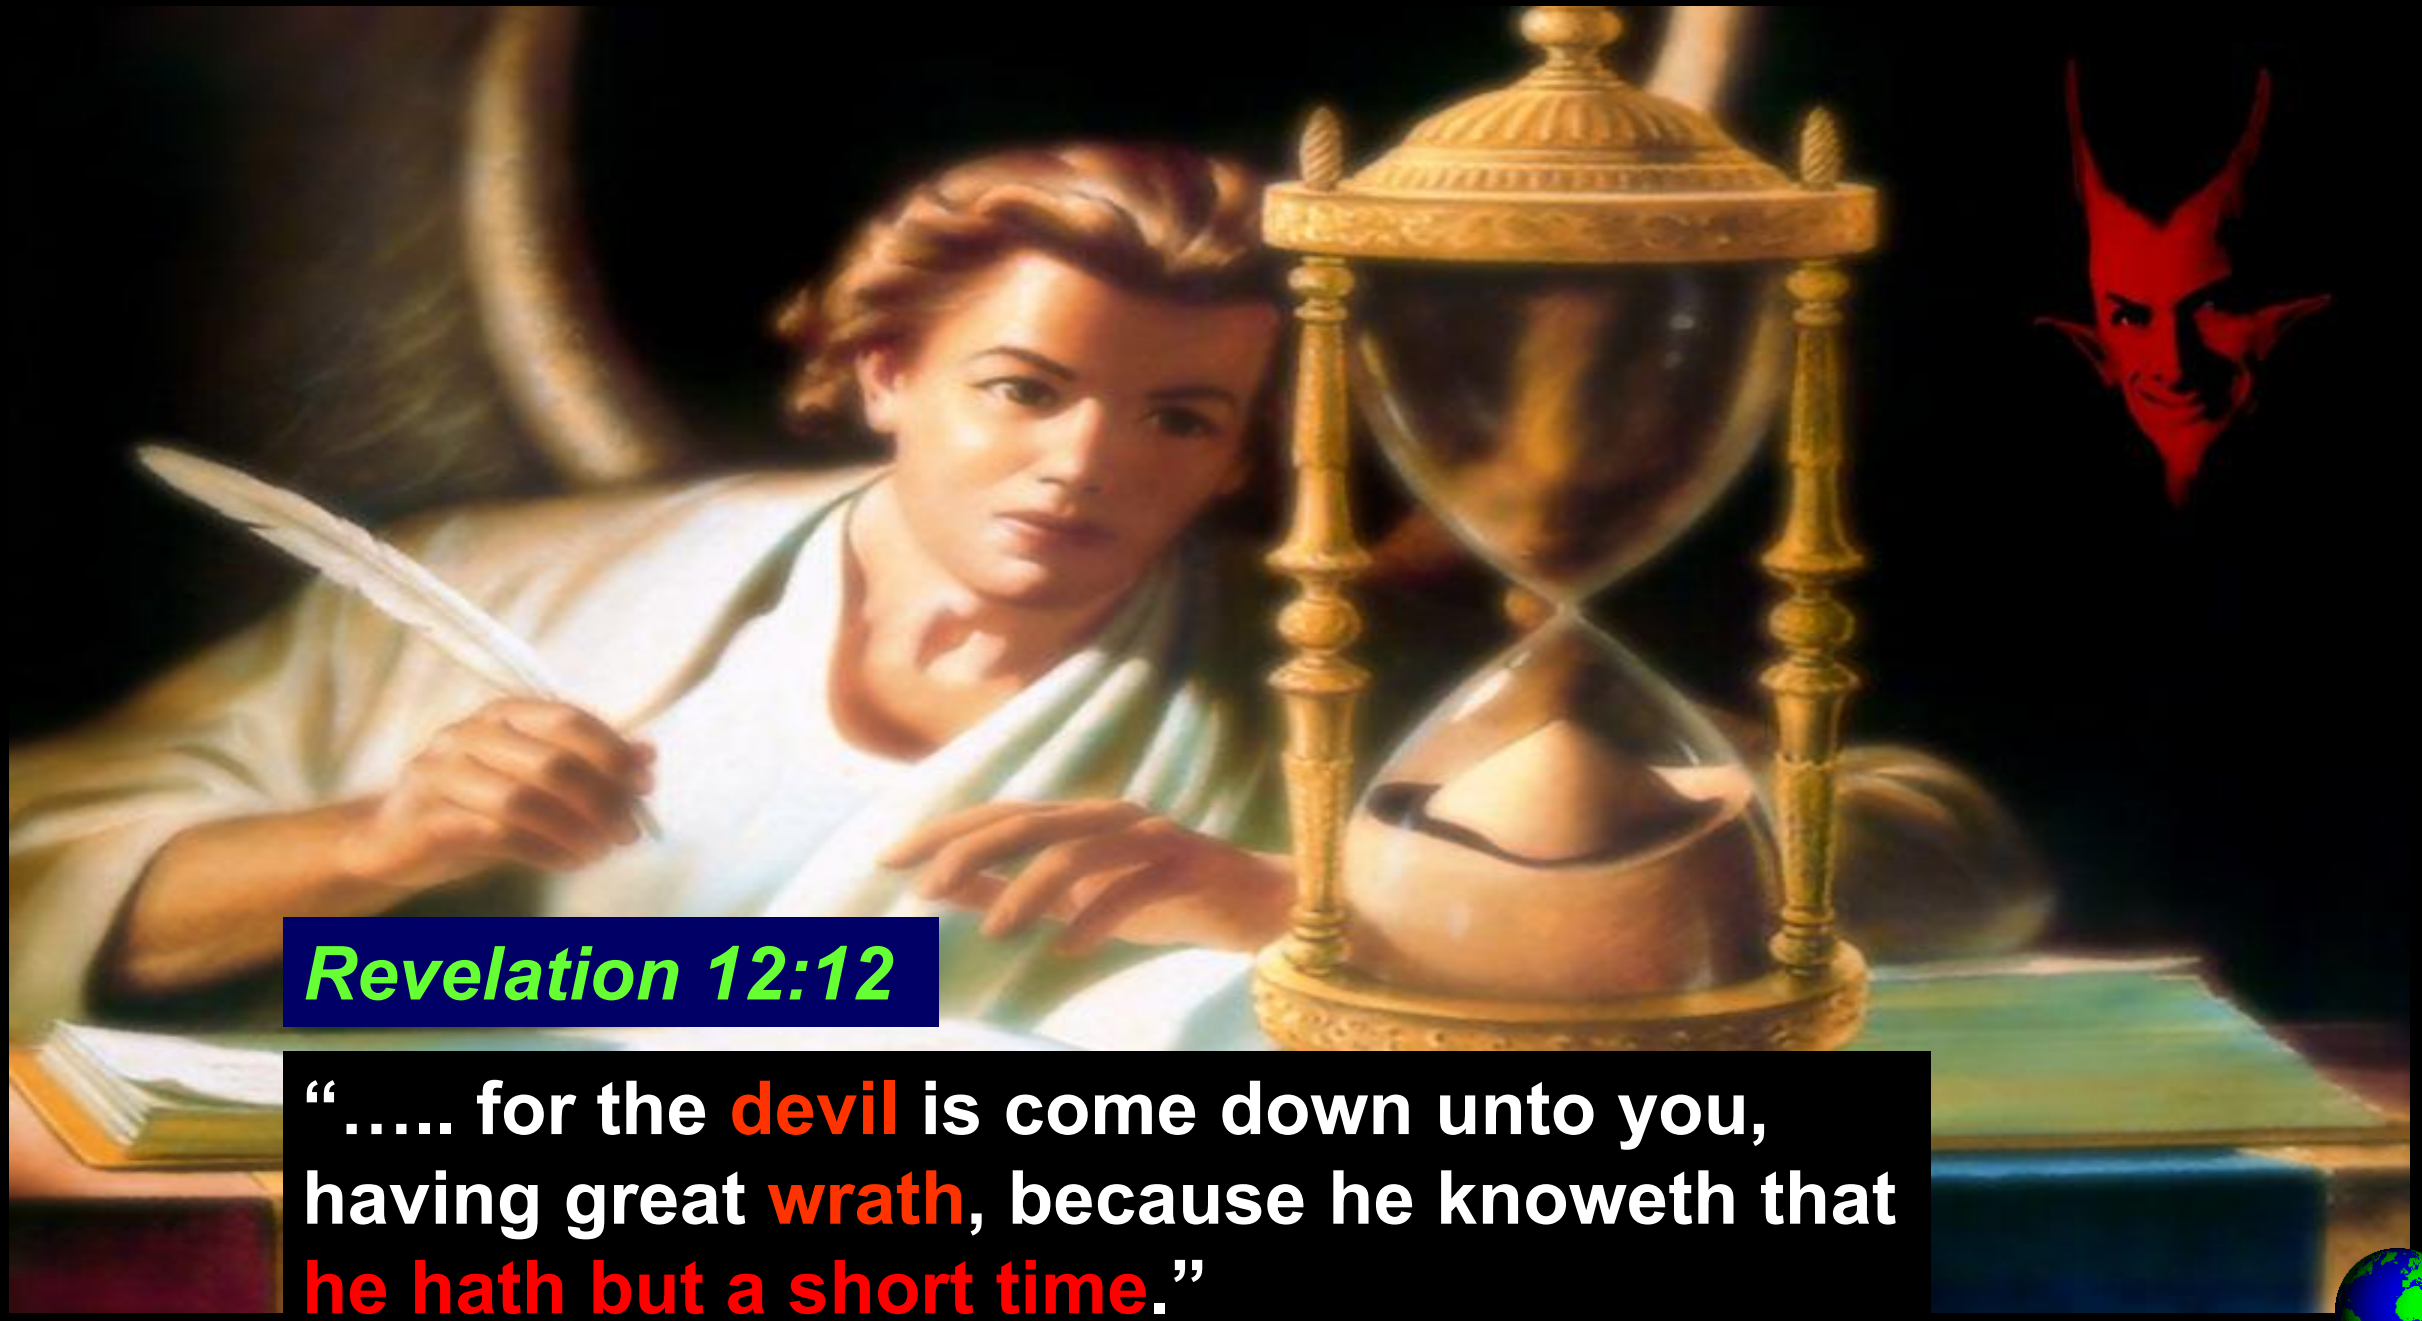

The Call to Character (2 Peter 3:11-14): Knowing this planet will be dissolved, the remnant are asked, "what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness?" They must diligently strive to be found by Him "in peace, without spot, and blameless."

Looking to Eternity (2 Peter 3:13): The final hope of the remnant is not fixing this broken world, but looking forward to the fulfillment of His promise: "a new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness."

God has given all:

Revelation 12:12

"….. for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."
